Official Figures on Salmon Pack—Dates of Game Season Announced—Halibut Landings

The total salmon pack for the Skeena River up to August 19 when the sockeye fishing season closed is placed at 140,272 cases according to officially compiled figures, this comparing with a total of 170,619 cases for the corresponding period last year. The Skeena sockeye pack is placed at 28,935 cases as against 55,099 cases last year. With the exception of pinks, the pack of which for this season is placed at 87,642 cases as compared with 43,910 cases last year, all other varieties also show decreased packs on the Skeena this year as compared with last. The total pack for the Naas River this year up to August 19 was placed at 57,109 cases as compared with 77,441 cases last year, this year's sockeye pack amounting to 8,939 cases as against 13,963 cases last year. For Rivers Inlet this year's total pack was 84,206 cases in comparison with 65,189 cases last year, the sockeye production being 77,010 cases as against last year's 59,335 cases. For Smith's Inlet this year's total pack up to August 19 was 54,500 cases as compared with last year's 26,362 cases while, for the central area, this year's pack was 126,502 cases in comparison with 166,549 cases last year. The sockeye pack for Smith's Inlet this year was 36,879 cases as against 24,658 cases last year while, in the central division, the sockeye pack was 25,629 cases this year in comparison with last year's 17,050 cases.

Powell River Co.'s tug St. Faith was in port Thursday evening for fuel. She left outside the harbor a Davis raft of logs which she is towing from the Queen Charlotte Islands to Powell River.

C. P. R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. S. K. Gray, arrived in port at 5:30 yesterday afternoon from the south and sailed at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Bird Hunting Season

The open season for the shooting of geese and ducks in the western district this year will again be from October 15 to January 31, it is announced. In the provincial electoral districts of Omineca, Fort George, Atlin and that portion of the Skeena provincial electoral district situate in the eastern district the season for geese and ducks will be from September 1 to December 15. The bag limit for ducks will be 20 in any day and 150 for the season and for geese 10 in any day and 50 in the season. The use of automatic or repeating shot guns is prohibited as is the shooting of migratory birds earlier than one hour before sunrise or later than one hour after sunset.

After having spent all day discharging and loading freights at Skeena River cannery points, Union steamer Cardena, with Capt. Ernest Georgeson in command, arrived in port at 8:30 last night from the south and sailed at 12 midnight on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. The vessel had quite a number of Skeena River cannery workers on board going through to Vancouver for the winter.

Halibut landings for the 1933 season at the port of Prince Rupert up to and including yesterday totalled 10,550,600 pounds of which 4,922,000 pounds had been brought in by Canadian vessels and 5,628,600 pounds by American. Last year up to a corresponding date landings here had totalled 10,551,350 pounds including 3,301,250 pounds from Canadian boats and 7,250,100 pounds from American.

During the week ending yesterday landings totalled 350,500 pounds of which 173,000 pounds were from Canadian boats and 177,500 pounds from American. Prices during the week remained at a fairly satisfactory level, even for fish that went into cold storage. The high price of the week for Canadian fish was 7c and 4¼c which the Atli and Vera Beatrice received for catches of 15,000 and 16,000 pounds respectively while, for American fish, the top bid of the week was 8½c and 5c which the Augusta and Zarembo received for 14,000 and 7,000 pound fares respectively. For Canadian fish the low price of the week was 5¾c and 4¼c and for American 6½c and 4c.

Want Northern Cross

Canon Rushbrook, who has been in charge of the Anglican mission boat Northern Cross during the summer months, has returned here to take charge of St. Peter's Church at Seal Cove and the mission boat is now laid up for the winter, no suitable man being available for the work of the coast mission. Residents at Alice Arm and other points have protested at the withdrawal of service and are sending petitions asking that the boat be continued in commission during the winter.

Making her final voyage of the season on tourist schedule, C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. Arthur Slater, arrived in port at 9 o'clock this morning from Vancouver and sailed a couple of hours later for Skagway and other northern points whence she will return here next Thursday afternoon southbound. The vessel brought in 142 passengers of whom seven disembarked here, four going north from here aboard the vessel. The northbound passengers included some thirty Alaskan school teachers going north to resume their duties after spending vacation in the south. At the conclusion of the present voyage, the Princess Louise will operate on fall schedule to Alaska.

Divisional headquarters of the provincial police here have been advised that James Boyd has been fined $10 and costs, with option of seven days' imprisonment, for assaulting Alec Moffatt, a well known Prince George merchant. The case was heard at Prince George.

COMEDY ON LABOR DAY

"Her First Mate," Starring Zasu Pitts and Slim Summerville, Coming Here

Two very popular screen comedians, Slim Summerville and Zasu Pitts, are co-starred in "Her First Mate," which will be the feature picture on the screen of the Capitol Theatre for Labor Day and Tuesday. The picture is based on a famous story and Broadway play entitled "Salt Water." In support of Slim and Zasu will be found Una Merkel, in her own right a noted comedienne, Warren Hymer, Berton Churchill, Jocelyn Lee and salty looking character men in the persons of George Marion and Henry Armetta.

"Her First Mate" is the story of a candy butcher on a Hudson River steamboat who has successfully kidded his wife into the belief that he is a great sailorman and whose one ambition is to captain a sea-going vessel. Zasu saved and pinched until she had enough to buy a boat but it was a ferry boat which blew up on its first trip. The picture is filled with a swift succession of laughable incidents and makes great holiday entertainment, it is said.

CAN YOU RECOGNIZE YOUR FAVORITE STAR?

Valuable Prizes in Paramount's "Know Your Star's Voice" Contest—Only a Part of Screendom's Favorites Will be Shown to Fans

An opportunity to capitalize the quickness of their eyes and the sharpness of their ears is being offered city moving picture fans in the Capitol Theatre "Know Your Star's Voice" contest which begins Monday on the screen of the Capitol Theatre. Could you identify eighteen famous Paramount film stars if you only heard their voices and saw a part of them on the screen?

This, in brief, is the query presented to entrants in the competition, which was devised to help celebrate Paramount Week, to be observed at Capitol Theatres beginning September 4 to 9.

Three special reels, each of which contains views of six different stars, with their backs or shoulders facing the camera, have been prepared in Paramount's Hollywood studios.

In the three reels there are eighteen stars. Entrants to the competition will be required to identify them correctly and write an interesting twenty-five-word description of each. The first reel in the series of three will be shown on the screen of the Capitol Theatre the week beginning Monday, September 4. Second and third reels will follow on successive weeks.

Contestants will be supplied with official entry forms at premises of merchants co-operating. The blank contains spaces on which names of the mystery stars are to be written. When the form has been completed contestants are requested to mail or deliver them to the manager of the Capitol Theatre.

A complete list of the numerous valuable prizes being offered may be found in the same column of this page and on the screen of the Capitol Theatre.

Rules For Contestants

1. No employee, or member of an employee's family of the Capitol Theatre may participate in this "Know Your Star's Voice" contest.
2. All entries will be passed on by a committee of judges appointed by the Capitol Theatre. Their decisions will be final.
3. Each contestant must submit their list of identified Paramount stars on official entry blanks to be obtained from the advertisers on this page.
4. It is understood that all identifications will be submitted at one time. In all, eighteen players are to be identified and a 25-word description of each player is to be submitted in each case. All final entries are to be mailed or brought to the Capitol Theatre manager not later than September 30.
5. No person may submit more than one complete set of identifications.
