Spokane Parent-Teachers Oppose Beer Near School

SPOKANE, April 10:—The Spokane Parent-Teachers' Association has sent a protest to the Washington State Liquor Control Board against granting of beer parlor licences to premises in close proximity of public schools. Particular exception is taken to six beer parlors being opened close to Franklin School here.

Armenians Hurt In Chicago Riot Will All Recover

CHICAGO, April 10:—All victims of the rioting on Sunday when Armenian paraders were interfered with by Communist sympathizers will recover, it was reported yesterday from hospitals in which they are confined.

Fracas of Drunken Indians Results In Supplying Charge

As an outcome of a free-for-all last week among Indians on the boat Me Too in Prince Rupert Harbor near the grain elevator, Bernard McKay appeared in city police court yesterday afternoon before Magistrate McClymont on a charge of supplying liquor to Indians, pleaded guilty and was this morning fined $200 with option of three months' imprisonment. During the fracas, which resulted from the imbibing of wine by the natives, one Indian sustained an injured skull and there was general disorder.

Nick J. Coulter of Port Edward was a visitor in town over the week-end.

Miss E. Twemlow of England, who is on a holiday visit to this coast, was a round trip passenger aboard the steamer Princess Norah which was in port Sunday afternoon bound for Alaska.

Rt. Rev. E. M. Bunoz O.M.I., Roman Catholic Bishop for Northern British Columbia and Yukon, returned to the city on the Catala this morning from a week's trip to Anyox on ecclesiastical duties.

James Redpath, port steward for the Yukon and White Pass Route, was a passenger aboard the Princess Norah Sunday afternoon going north to Whitehorse for the season. He has been spending the winter in the south.

This morning telephone orders were received for three hundred rose bushes at 18c. each, provided arrangements can be made to send in an order for a thousand when the meeting of gardeners takes place this evening in the city hall at 8 o'clock.

MEETING TONIGHT

All gardeners in the city or those interested in gardening are invited to attend a public meeting tonight at 8 in the city hall for the purpose of considering the advisability of organizing a garden club or similar organization and to discuss the possibility of ordering a thousand rose trees which can be secured at 18c. each from a Vancouver Island grower provided one thousand are ordered or 17c. if two thousand ordered at one time. Those unable to attend the meeting are asked to telephone the City Hall or the Daily News how many rose trees they would like to take in the case of the purchase being made. 84

Hunt's Store Is Entered Again

Cash and Cigarettes Taken Last Night When Ship Chandlery Premises Visited

The ship chandlery store of F. E. Hunt Ltd., on the local waterfront, scene of many such escapades previously, was again broken into last evening some time between 7 and 9 o'clock and a quantity of cigarettes taken as well as a small amount of cash from the cash register. Entry was made by breaking a window on the main floor from the water side of the building. The police were investigating the incident this morning.
