Don't forget to attend the anniversary concert in the Methodist church Monday night, March 2, at 8 o'clock. Admission 50c.

In the police court this morning three Indian women were charged with wandering on the streets and not being able to give an account of themselves. They were released on suspended sentence with instructions to leave town and return to their homes at once.

The Rev. W. E. Collison will conduct the usual Sunday service at St. Peter's church, Seal Cove. On the last two Sundays it was impossible to arrange for services as Mr. Collison was officiating at St. Andrew's during the absence of Canon Rix.

The commissioner of the board of trade has received several packages of government reports, including the mining report, the lands report, the fisheries report, Skeena lands recording division and maps of northern British Columbia. Applicants can get these by calling at the exhibition rooms.

A Finlander named Matthew Johnson was brought down on yesterday's train from Hazelton on his way to New Westminster. About eighteen months ago a tree fell right across his body and injured his spine and he has been lying in Hazelton hospital since that time. Recently his mind has shown signs of wandering and it was thought best to send him below.

Short on Prints

After deciding recently to publish a monthly paper at the Illinois state penitentiary at Joliet, to be edited by the convicts the prison officials were somewhat embarrassed to find that there was not one printer among the 1,500 inmates of that institution. A former prominent banker, under sentence for forgery, will be the editor. Some years ago it was necessary to discontinue the publication of the prison paper in the Ohio penitentiary at Columbus, because of the absence of printers although there were fifty bankers behind the bars.—Typographical Journal.

BIG REMOVAL SALE ACME CLOTHING HOUSE

Everything With a Yellow Tag Which Offers an Unprecedented Bargain

"This will be the greatest sale of men's clothing and men's wear ever known in northern B. C.," said Mr. Scheinman of the Acme Clothing house. "We have a tremendous stock on hand and we prefer to sell it at slaughter prices rather than pack it up for moving."

The Acme Clothing store was closed yesterday and again today in preparation for the sale. Every article is being marked with a yellow tag, which shows the sale price, and every tag gives a bargain. There are thousands of them and something to interest every man. Some of the stock is just in from the wholesale houses. It had to be taken into the old store and the owner does not want to move it.

The big sale starts tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. Be sure you get a piece of the good things.

To lighten the burdens of house cleaning a new dust brush has a telescoping handle for reaching otherwise inaccessible places.
