Trades and Labor Council Agrees Regina Sentences Too Severe; Regular Session Held

A resolution from the Regina Citizens' League asking support in the movement for the release of Joe Mottl and Sidney Stevens, who were sentenced to seven months in jail for rioting in connection with the Dominion Day trouble in Regina last year, was endorsed by the Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council at its meeting Thursday night and the co-operation of Olof Hanson, M.P. for Skeena, in the matter will be sought. On the grounds that the sentences were too severe, appeals have been made to Hon. Ernest Lapointe, federal minister of justice, and Hon. T. C. Davies, attorney general of Saskatchewan.

There was a letter from the Canadian Youth Congress seeking moral and financial support. The council is in sympathy with the movement and will co-operate in every way possible but is also seeking further information.

A letter from Olof Hanson, M.P. for Skeena, stated that the local member was in sympathy with a resolution of A. A. Heaps, Labor M.P. for Winnipeg, seeking a $50 a month pension for persons over the age of sixty years.

The council went on record as favoring the movement to secure shorter working hours in local stores and will co-operate with merchants who would close earlier on Saturday evenings.

A letter from the unemployed councils asked that the delegate of the Trades and Labor Council who attended conferences with City Commissioner W. J. Alder and Government Agent Norman A. Watt on April 25 in regard to relief be made permanent. In order to make co-operation possible whenever necessary, this was agreed to. The delegate gave a report on the two conferences.

A communication from the Government Agent on the matter of relief was read.

There was also correspondence from the Calgary Typographical Union in regard to the walk-outs from the Herald and Albertan newspapers.

President S. D. Macdonald was in the chair and the meeting was well attended. Credentials were received from James Forman as alternate for the Electrical Workers' Union.

Dr. A. L. McQuarrie, medical officer of the Department of Indian Affairs for British Columbia, who has been in the city and district for the past three weeks on an official tour, sailed by the Princess Adelaide last night on his return to Vancouver. On Wednesday Dr. McQuarrie visited Kitkatla in company with Indian Agent W. E. Collison and Capt. Gerald Barry of Victoria, inspector of Indian Schools.

Miss Elizabeth Tyner R.N. Becomes Bride of A. L. Ford at Prince George

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Michael's Church in Prince George last Saturday afternoon when Miss Edna Isabel Tyner R.N., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tyner of Prince George and a graduate of the Prince Rupert General Hospital training school for nurses, became the bride of Arthur Leslie Ford, son of Mrs. Cormack of Prince George and a well known operator of Canadian National Telegraphs who has often been stationed in Prince Rupert. The ceremony was performed by Archdeacon Pottinger.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a smart red-flecked brown swagger ensemble with a tailored red felt hat and brown accessories. Her bouquet was of red roses and asparagus fern. Miss Jean Tyner, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing a fawn and brown ensemble and carrying a sheaf of mauve and pink sweet peas and fern. Mr. McCaw, brother-in-law of the groom was groomsman. The wedding march was played by Miss Betty Milburn.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents after which Mr. and Mrs. Ford left for Vancouver where they will take up residence.

Shower hostesses for the bride prior to her marriage were Mrs. Milo Kenney and Mrs. R. A. Harlow.
