Mrs. McColl at Home

One of the most enjoyable "teas" ever given in Prince Rupert took place yesterday afternoon when Mrs. G. P. McColl held a farewell reception for Mrs. Andrew Stewart at her home on Fifth avenue west.

Many of the guests declare that they have never seen tables more beautifully decorated. The display of flowers and silver was exquisite. A selection on the pianoforte by Miss L. Stevens was very much appreciated, as was a recitation by Mrs. Patterson. The tea tables were in charge of Mrs. D. G. Stewart and Miss MacTavish. Mrs. Merryfield served.

Among those present were: Mesdames Eggert, Wilson-Murray, Melville, Carmichael, Steen, Tobey, Jamieson, Douglas, Arnold, Humble, M. M. Stephens, Hilditch, Paterson, D. C. Strang, Arthur Smith, Dimmick, P. Stevens, Fortune, Brady, Warner, Martin, and Misses McWilliams, L. Stevens, and Moore.
