FUR GOODS OF FINEST

William Goldbloom has returned to the city from a buying trip to New York, Montreal and other points, bringing with him as fine a stock of coats and fur goods as it has ever been his privilege to offer for the pleasure of the ladies of Prince Rupert. The coats range in price from $75 to $1,100.

Mr. Goldbloom says: "You positively can be 20 per cent cheaper from me here than you can in New York or Montreal. I am able to do this because my overhead and my expenses are lower.

"You are invited to inspect my stock.

"Rest assured that my prices and terms are right.'

Mr. Goldbloom also brings home good news for trappers. This is that prices are 25 per cent higher this season than they were last year.

"Of course, this is if you sell to Goldbloom." —Advt.
