BOOTH GIRLS WIN OPENER

Inaugurate Softball Season With 12 to 2 Victory Over Dry Dock

Booth Memorial High School's girls' softball team inaugurated their season despite inclement weather last night and defeated Dry Dock 12 to 2 at Gyro Park.

Mainstay of the Bo-Me-Hi's pitching staff in 1944, Betty Hamilton was on the mound for the winners in the five-inning game. The Booth slab artist was a little wild but nevertheless blanked the opposition in every frame but the last.

Score by innings:

Dry Dock	0	0	0	0	2	— 2
Bo-Me-Hi	3	1	2	6	x	—12

Batteries:
Dry Dock—Scott and Tulloch.
Bo-Me-Hi — Hamilton and Cowie.

The league standings are as follows:

Allies	2	0	1000
Bo-Me-Hi	1	0	1000
C.W.A.C.'s	1	1	.500
Wrens	1	1	.500
Moose Club	1	1	.500
Navy Civilians	0	1	.000
Dry Dock	0	2	.000

"TREE GROWS" IS FINE FILM

Merry, tender and heart-warming as a story, Betty Smith's best-selling book "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn" loses none of its essential qualities in its picturization this week-end at the Capitol Theatre.

While the story has its amusing episodes, it is not essentially a comedy. It is a dramatic slice of life as it was in Brooklyn a generation ago. Dorothy McGuire, who made such a hit in "Claudia," wins further laurels in the role of the hard-working, sober-minded mother who, although poorly educated herself, fights desperate odds in her courageous struggle to "bring her children up right."

James Dunn is the irresponsible, singing waiter husband while Joan Blondell plays the vivacious "Aunt Cissy." Lloyd Nolan is impressive as a police officer.

Peggy Ann Garner and Ted Donaldson have the parts of the two children—the former as the local girl who wanted to know everything in the world and the latter as the little boy who was always hungry.

The picture won acclaim from all those who have already seen it and many are planning to take it in on the remaining showings.

Local Boy, Wounded, Back From Overseas

Sergeant Fred Roberts of the Royal Canadian Engineers here and Mrs. Roberts have received word through the Canadian Red Cross Society that their son, Freddie, is due in Vancouver today on a hospital train. He was wounded in Holland on April 14, sustaining hip and leg injuries. Whether or not he will have to remain in Vancouve rfor hospitalization or will be able to come home is not at present known.
