Great Demand for Baby Carriage.

A local citizen called yesterday and advertised a baby carriage for sale. Today he called to have it taken out as he had sold the article and half the people in town were still after it. This proves two things—first, the advertising values of The Daily News; second, the enormous rate at which the baby population of this city is increasing.

Dog Interfered With Life Saver

North Yakima, March 11.—Throwing off her fur coat and hat, Mrs. H. B. Rigg, wife of former Judge Rigg of the Yakima County Superior Court, jumped into a mill pond here yesterday in an effort to save a 10-year-old boy who had fallen off a log into the water. Mrs. Rigg's dog, already in the water, believing his mistress to be drowning, tried to save her, and so impeded her efforts that the boy was drowned.
