WATCH the bread line form in any large city

when hunger and poverty stalk abroad.

It is a safe guess that those who relieve pinched face and gaunt frame buy the very best bread obtainable, because they know that back of the best bread is the best flour and that the best flour contains the most nourishment.

Similarly when the bread line forms for breakfast and supper at home, the wise housewife knows that the best way to appease sharp appetite is to provide home-made bread, made from the very best flour she can buy. Now-a-days she uses

Mr. A. W. Agnew has taken over the management of his firm's business in Victoria and will not return to Prince Rupert. His residence will be leased by a popular Prince Rupert man who will soon join the benedictins.

Several prominent business men and members of the Liberal association were at the wharf this morning to meet the Liberal leaders on their arrival on the Venture.

Mr. Brewster expressed his pleasure at the news that the G. T. P. steel is to be tied Monday, with all that the speedy completion of the line means to Prince Rupert. He was agreeably surprised to find business so brisk and to see all the indications of activity in so many directions.

The boats of the Alaska steamship company, which expected to make the Prince Rupert call this year, are finding such a stampede into Alaska that every boat is crowded and there is no object in catering for Prince Rupert business while the rush is on.

The finishing touches are being given to the Presbyterian manse on Fourth avenue. This will be one of the most comfortable cottages in the city and should be a drawing card when the vacancy comes to be filled.

Chief Gammon of Hazelton is expected to be changed to the Prince Rupert office in place of Chief Owen, who leaves shortly to assume his new duties as assistant provincial inspector. Chief Mintz of Fernie will take the Hazelton office.

Dr. Gilroy left last evening for Seattle on a brief business trip.

Mrs. Albert Davidson will not receive next Monday.

Port Edward is only a few minutes, by rail, from Prince Rupert. 64tf

No tailor can fit you better than Martin O'Reilly, and no store can show such a range of styles and material. 77

The history of Seattle and Ballard will repeat itself in Prince Rupert and Port Edward.

Inlaid linoleums, cork carpets, print linoleums and floor oilcloth at 40 per cent discount for cash. Geo. D. Tite, the quality furnisher. 74tf

"We are glad to get up into Prince Rupert's fine weather," remarked H. C. Brewster, the Liberal leader, this morning.

Passengers north on the City of Seattle last night were: Wm. Simmons, P. N. Piersol, George Milner, J. C. Knight, Ruff Bradford, A. T. Harrison and wife.

Watch Graham Island develop. Get a pre-emption now. Queen Charlotte Islands Information Bureau. 77-78

Leishmen's men's tailored clothing is superior to any garment you may buy anywhere. Look in an see the splendid assortment of styles and fabrics at Martin O'Reilly's. 77

The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be dispensed next Sunday morning in the Presbyterian church service. There will be a preparatory service tonight at 8 o'clock sharp. Rev. Mr. Fortune will officiate.

Graham Island is suitable for stock raising. Land there will sell high in the near future. There are still a few good pre-emptions left. See us today. Queen Charlotte Islands Information Bureau. 77-8

After this week the Empress theatre will be closed for a couple of weeks to undergo a complete remodeling. It is the intention to put on a series of high class pictures after opening again.

The new City of Seattle came into port last evening at nine o'clock and a number of curious people were at the docks to see the rebuilt ship. She was hardly recognized by the old timers. J. H. Rogers, the company's local agent, says she will be the popular boat of the run this season.

William Manson has been personally invited to be present at the public meeting tonight, and to speak in defense of his party.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

A kissable girl often pretends that she doesn't want to.

The open season for office hunting is twelve months' long.

Some people seem to think a philanthropist merely an easy mark.

Often a woman's silence is more significant than a man's words.

It is possible to avoid temptation by attending strictly to one's own business.

A man might just as well patronize a safety razor as a deaf and dumb barber.

When a woman considers her husband a necessary evil marriage is a failure.

What the wisest of us say is of far less importance than what we leave unsaid.

If marriage is a lottery, that may explain why the law interferes in so many cases.

Of course it is less trouble to make enemies than friends—but friends are worth the trouble.

Occasionally the breaking of an engagement enables both parties to live happily ever after.
