JUGGLING WITH POSTERITY SAYS PARKER WILLIAMS, M.P.P.

SOCIALIST MEMBER FOR NEWCASTLE DISCUSSES PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT AND MR. BOWSER

Following up the assertion only one or two officials ten years ago, were now complicated machineries requiring hundreds of men to conduct them. Mr. Parker Williams, M.P.P., speaking at the Colonial theatre in Vancouver on Sunday night last, said that when posterity came to look for the money to pay the debts they would find one of the principal sources of revenue, from timber, tied up by the McBride administration of 1914.

Mr. Williams continued that he did not know whether this was legal, but as Mr. Bowser said it was, they went ahead and did it.

Criticizing the various departments, the speaker showed how many of them, employing

McBRIDE STILL HAS CHANCE FOR THE PLUM

Ottawa, April 15.—There is no confirmation here of the Vancouver report to the effect that Sir Richard McBride has been appointed Canadian high commissioner to succeed the late Lord Strathcona in London. No appointment has yet been made, and none is expected for some time. Sir Richard McBride has not been at Ottawa for some weeks. It is believed, however, that Sir Richard is in the running for the position and will be a strong candidate. In connection with the Vancouver report, it is believed that the wish has been father to the thought.

G. T. P. MEN WERE GIVEN RECEPTION

Officials of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, who reached Vancouver on Saturday night, after having made the trip from Winnipeg through to the northern terminal on the newly linked up transcontinental line, were afforded a hearty welcome on their arrival by a delegation representing the city council, Vancouver board of trade and business interests. An informal reception was held on board the vessel, at which felicitations were exchanged. The railway men were taken for an auto drive around the city and Shaughnessy Heights subsequently, and Capt. Nicholson, manager of the G. T. P. steamship service, entertained the visitors later at a box party at the Orpheum theatre.—Vancouver Province.

The Oldest Ship

The old Dashing Wave went north yesterday afternoon in tow of the tug Pioneer. She serves as a floating warehouse for the Taku cannery. The Dashing wave is supposed to be the oldest vessel under the American flag now in active service. She was once chased by the Confederate privateer Alabama and a shot fired by that vessel was dug out of the Dashing Wave not very long ago. The Morning Star, a power trawler, arrived up yesterday, and entered at the local customs house.—Ketchikan Miner.
