NEWLY ARRIVING IMMIGRANTS NOT GOING ON THE LAND

ARE COMING IN BUT NOT CLASS OF SETTLERS CANADA WANTS-CHANGE NEEDED IN DEPARTMENT METHODS

During the past year 402,000 immigrants arrived in Canada according to the Ottawa returns. This was an increase of 50,000 over the previous year. Of the 1,500,000 came from the United States. There has been a marked increase in British and American immigration, but a falling off in arrivals from the United States. Mr. Frank Oliver called attention to the fact that when the immigration was 341,000, in 1911, the homestead entries numbered 44,779, while last year with a total immigration of 400,000, the homestead entries dropped to 33,699. It was announced policy of the government to secure people to go on the land, but the records seemed to show they were travelling in the other direction. Mr. Oliver believed that the methods of the department should be revised. It had been looking for quantity rather than quality. In the first nine months of 1913 the government had been under the necessity of deporting no less than 1,500 immigrants. Mr. Alphonse Verville, the Labor member, placed himself upon record as opposed to bonusing immigrants. He urged the government to pass an order-in-council similar to the one passed for British Columbia, excluding all artisans and laborers until the present business depression was over.

BRITISH ARMY MEN GOING INTO PEACE RIVER

News of settlers going into the Peace River country is now an every day occurrence, but to find three men who have served in the British army and in the South African war coming to Canada for the purpose of locating on land is not an every day occurrence. Harry and Robert Swinton, brothers, and Ernest Kelly were in Edmonton the other day en route to the Peace River country. All three are from the island of Malta, and have for some years and until recently been members of regiments in the British army. The oldest brother, Robert Swinton, and Kelly served in the same regiment in the Boer war, going from the old country with the first contingent. Mr. Swinton said he had first heard about Canada's west when in South Africa, members of the Canadian contingents telling stories about it, and it was a mere chance that he did not come to America then. He states that the country around the Lesser Slave lake appeals to them best and thinks they will likely locate in the Grouard district. WHILE PEACE IS NEGOTIATING MEXICO IS PREPARING FOR WAR

RAILWAY FOUNDRY ORDERED TO MANUFACTURE CANNON AT RATE OF FIFTY PER WEEK—FORTIFICATIONS IN CAPITAL

Mexico City, April 30.—While Washington is conferring with the South American envoys in the hope of reaching a basis for a peaceful solution of the difficulties between the United States and Mexico relative to the Huerta regime, the peace problem does not seem to be playing any very great part here. There is no halt in this city in the feverish preparations for war which are constantly going on here and which are everywhere apparent. It has been suggested that the public authorities co-operate with the military forces. The commanders have advised the central government that strong fortifications be hastily prepared in order to prepare the capital against siege. The plans of these will be considered in detail and probably carried into effect. Conferences are being held with some of the Indian chiefs who know the country thoroughly for the purpose of having them throw forces out in the mountains to harass the American troops that may come in on the way to attack the capital. The railway foundry has been ordered to suspend work upon railway equipment immediately. Supplementing this order is one to immediately commence the construction of two hundred cannon to be delivered to the government within a month, at the rate of fifty weekly. The first batch of these guns is to be ready for testing within a few days. These cannon are to be despatched to points along the waterfront from Vera Cruz.

Pleasant Social Evening

The Baptist Young People's union had a very successful social last night in the church rooms. From forty to fifty members attended and enjoyed themselves immensely. A number of old time games were played as well as several new ones. Supper was then served to all, and everyone had a real good time.
