"IT PAYS TO BE KIND"

PRESIDENT E. J. CHAMBERLIN

To every employee of the Grand Trunk and Grand Trunk Pacific railways a message has been sent out from the president's office. This message deals with "Efficiency and Courtesy," and is signed by Mr. E. J. Chamberlin, president of the Grand Trunk and Grand Trunk Pacific railways. Mr. Chamberlain's message embodies the spirit of the modern railroad, an insistence on the right of the public, passengers and shippers alike, to demand the best possible service from the railway man. In his message to the passenger department employees the president says:

"The railroad company desires to sell its transportation. The ticket rates are alike for all, and any person buying a ticket, no matter what the style his clothes are, how much money he displays or what his position in society is, is entitled to proper and courteous treatment.

"The railroad man has a great opportunity for passing out kindness and good will. He comes in contact with every kind and condition of individual: the old, the young, the rich, the poor, the illiterate, the learned, the happy, the prosperous, and those in defeat, saturated with sorrow and distress; he sees them all and through intuition knows to what class they belong. A smile, a kind word, or a kindness done to any of these cannot fail to leave its impression for good and this good cannot help but expand. Try it."

The president's message to freight men says:

"The needs and wishes of shippers and consignees should be anticipated as much as possible. When cars are ordered the matter should receive close attention and in case it is not possible to furnish as ordered, shipper should be notified, so he may arrange his plans accordingly; he should be made to feel that you are interested in his welfare, and that his business is worthy of consideration. Do not discommode a shipper because of some omission of his own, but try to help him out. Railroads are the servants of the public, and it is their duty to serve well."

SCIENTISTS START OVERLAND TO ARCTIC

Going to Study Air Currents for International Meteorological Service

Edmonton, May 5.—John Pattison of the Toronto observatory has been in the city en route to Athabasca, and thence to the Arctic ocean, a trip which is being undertaken in connection with international work for the study of air currents in the Arctic regions, involving also the inspection of the meteorological service stations at Mackenzie river under government instruction.

For a portion of the trip north he will be accompanied by Geo. Hall Ingram, who is making a tour of northern Alberta to study the natural history of the northern areas, to collect specimens for scientific purposes, to photograph wild life, and to accumulate a mass of information for publication.

Mr. Ingram's expedition will be in part of a private nature, but he expects to be able to place at the disposal of scientists knowledge that will be of uncommon value.

Little is at present known of the territory through which these men will pass. Voyaging by canoe on the great waterways of the hinterland, the party will cover more than 1,000 miles on their outward course. They will strike north by the Athabasca and Slave rivers, up the Great Slave lake and chain of small lakes to the great northland, and on their return they hope to bring with them data of the most important kind. Notes and sketches will be taken during the journey, and to scientists and the general public alike it is anticipated that the information that Mr. Ingram and Mr. Pattison will secure will prove of immense interest. Mr. Ingram has made a special study of wild life and he expects to secure suitable subjects for publication.

Is Bowser Coming?

Latest reports from Victoria state that Hon. W. J. Bowser, who, with Hon. W. R. Ross, minister of lands, is about to make a tour of the province, will arrive at Fort George about the second week in May. It is expected that by that time the Grand Trunk Pacific will be running trains into this place from the west and probably the attorney-general and his companion will use that route.—Fort George Tribune.
