ITALIAN VOLCANOS EXTREMELY ACTIVE

Naples, May 16.—Mount Vesuvius again is active. Last night a big column of vapor and tongues of flame were seen coming out of the crater. Earthquake shocks continue with alarming frequency. A number of the houses weakened by previous shocks have fallen. Fortunately, however, there have been no fatalities, as the populace of the city and countryside is camped in the open.

RAIDED CARD GAME TWO MEN ARE DEAD

Bandits Open Fire in Saloon and A Rain of Bullets Follows

San Francisco, May 25.—With drawn revolvers two masked men entered a roadhouse on the southern outskirts of the city early today where eight men were playing "Klondike," a card game. A general shooting that followed cost the lives of a player and one of the bandits. The other bandit was probably fatally wounded, and another of the players received a superficial wound in the neck.

The dead—David Williams and James Baily.

The wounded—Edward Donovan and Eugene Galatoire.

Baily and Donovan, the highwaymen, rushed up to Con Regan, one of the players, crying: "We want you," and began firing. Regan tumbled out of his chair quickly enough to escape the bullets.

Williams, who was dealing the game, tried to interfere, and was shot through the head. The other players scrambled to cover.

William Markt, the proprietor of the house, who was behind the bar, picked up a pistol and began shooting. The bandits turned their weapons on him and one of the shots struck Galatoire in the neck.

Having emptied their pistols, the intruders fled, pursued by a rain of bullets from Markt's revolver. They ran up the street and Donovan boarded a street car. Baily was found dead by a crowd that had taken up the chase.

As Donovan entered the car he cried: "I have been shot." He was taken to a hospital, where bullet wounds were found in his neck and chest. His condition is critical.

HELD UNDER AUTO CUT THEIR WAY OUT

Sunbury, Pa., May 24.—When their fight touring car upset in Sunbury, shortly after midnight, D. Russell and Charles Sholly, Herndon business men, were pinned under the tonneau. With pocket knives they cut their way through the side of the car and succeeded in forcing their heads out and lustily cried for help. A garage was near by, and the car was soon lifted off the men. Both suffered much from shock and were bruised and lacerated. They were returning from a trout fishing trip.

Bismarck—the Greatest of the Germans

BISMARCK, like all Germans, prized Personal Liberty as the breath of life—a NATURAL RIGHT to be guarded and defended at any cost. Among our millions of law-abiding German-American citizens there is not a man who does not consider it insolent tyranny of the most odious kind for any legislation to issue this command: "Thou shalt NOT eat this—thou shalt NOT drink that." Germans know that there is no evil in the light wines and beers of their fathers. EVIL ONLY IS IN THE MAN WHO MISUSES THEM. Fifty-seven years ago ANHEUSER-BUSCH founded their great institution upon the tenets of the Constitution of the United States. During these fifty-seven years they have honestly brewed an honest beer—the kind that has added to the temperance of nations. Their great brand—BUDWEISER—is demanded throughout the world. Its sales exceed any other beer by millions of bottles, proving it to be in a class by itself.
