CANADA WILL HELP

Will Establish Fuel Stations for Air Race

New York, June 25—The Canadian Government will establish fuel and supply stations on the Labrador and Greenland Coasts for the round-the-world aeroplans, which will fly from the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco next year. This was announced here today by Arnold Kruckman, who arrived here yesterday after following a proposed route of the race from California to the Atlantic Coast by way of Chicago, across several of the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence River. If this course is selected, Philadelphia, New York and Boston will not see the contestants as was originally planned.

MASSET NOTES

(Queen Charlotte Islander)

Mr. F. Bastien arrived on the last trip of the Prince Albert bound for Seaway. He was accompanied by Mrs. Bastien, and brought several tons of effects and farming equipment, a fine team, two cows, two calves and several crates of poultry. He is the forerunner of a German colony of some forty families that are coming to that section of the island. An outfit like this is indeed welcome and better settlers in an agricultural country can not be had.

The "Charles Harrison" is the latest addition to the masquito fleet. It was built by Hazelton Bros., of Woden for Provincial Constable Gordon, and is a splendid model.

Mr. G. L. Cullin, pre-emption inspector, is once more in town, having spent the last month between Skidegate and Woden. His knowledge of the interior of the island should now be second to none.
