MEMORIAL SERVICES IN THE OPERA HOUSE TOMORROW

THE MAYOR WILL PRESIDE AND MR. J. E. DAVEY WILL CONDUCT A SONG SERVICE OF MANY MEMORABLE FEATURES.

From the general public interest felt in the Titanic disaster, as well as from the personal interest taken in the late Charles M. Hays, and sincere sympathy with his bereaved family, there is certain to be a large gathering at the memorial services to the Titanic victims to be held in the Westholme Opera House at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Mayor Newton will preside and make the introductory address and Rev. Mr. Bushbrook and Rev. F. W. Kerr will lead the devotional exercises, and there will be short addresses by Rev. Father Bonor, Rev. C. R. Sing and Rev. Warren H. McLeod.

In our despatches this morning it will be seen that similar memorial services are being held all over the continent and in England a great service was held in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, yesterday which was attended by the Lord Mayor and aldermen, members of the peerage and the government, the diplomatic corps and many distinguished foreigners. Services are being held this afternoon at St. Patrick's Roman Cathedral, New York, and probably every church in that great city will hold services tomorrow. They have also been announced to be held in Victoria, Vancouver, Winnipeg, Montreal, Calgary and other cities.

At Prince Rupert's services tomorrow a special service of song will be a feature, under the able conducting of Mr. J. E. Davey, by members of the choir that made so distinct a success in the rendition of the sacred cantata, Mrs. G. W. Carpenter playing the piano accompaniments. Mr. Davey will also favor with a solo and a quartet composed of Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, Mrs. Neher, Mr. J. E. Davey and Mr. Clapperton will sing that famous part song "Jesus, Savior, Piled Me."

ANXIETY FELT IN RUPERT

MISS C. BARKER IS VERY ILL

Special Edition of Daily News Yesterday Morning Containing Latest of Titanic Wreck Eagerly Sought for and Quickly Exhausted.

Disappointing news has just been received by W. L. Barker, architect in this city. His daughter, Miss Coral Barker, who after making apparently a good recovery from serious rheumatic trouble went south to Oregon Springs to recuperate, has suffered a serious relapse and is again confined to bed, unable to move. Those who recall the willingness with which Miss Barker lent her assistance in entertainments in the earlier days of Rupert's growth will learn the news of her renewed illness with great regret, more especially since previous to her going south this time she appeared again as a talented contributor to a musical entertainment in the Presbyterian Hall.

Mr. W. Raymond Recovering. News that Mr. W. J. Raymond of the Evening Empire staff is recovering from what has been a more serious illness than many of his friends fully realized is welcomed by his confreres of the press in The News office. The News boys congratulate Mr. Raymond on his recovery, which it is hoped will be rapid from now on, until he again takes his place at the city desk of "our esteemed contemporary."

NEWS CAME SLOWLY

Wireless Was Handicapped by Thunder Storm.

New York, April 16.—All through the night officers of the White Star Line and the newspapers were besieged by many persons anxious to learn the fate of relatives or friends on board the Titanic, while a flood of telegrams, cable despatches and telephone messages were received, bringing enquiries from different parts of the country. Officials of the line had little news to impart. Wireless operators worked through the night trying to send and pick up calls from the scene of the disaster.

The wireless was handicapped by a thunder storm, which finally silenced transmission for a time.

CLARA BARTON PASSES AWAY

Founder of American Red Cross Society and One of the Foremost Women of Her Day Dies of Pneumonia.

Washington, April 15.—Miss Clara Barton, founder of the American Red Cross and probably the most widely known woman of her day, died this morning at 9 o'clock in her home, Red Cross, in Glen Echo, Md.

She was 90 years old. Miss Barton suffered an attack of pneumonia in February, had a relapse and the case became chronic. She went last summer to her old home in Oxford, Mass., and returned to Glen Echo in feeble health last autumn.

Muscular weakness of the heart developed and for weeks the condition of the nurse had been such as to cause grave concern. Her mind was undimmed almost to the last and her ready wit and quick repartee made her sick room a place of cheer.

Now is kodak time. Eastman's at the Rexall Store.
