DAILY EDITION

Tuesday, July 7, 1914.

On May 22nd the Mayor awoke from a long slumber to remark through his paper that he had again returned to his duty of protecting the city's interest and was proceeding in charge of a well known skipper to locate a new water power for the city. The city surely needs a brand new water power for the Woodworth Lake stream is almost gone dry and Bill Manson hasn't got the pull required to land the Work's Channel power. But since this announcement of the Mayor, everything has died down again. Of course it is possible that like Rip Van Winkle he has taken his accustomed sleep again and for that matter his bones may be bleaching on the rough hills of Work Channel. Somebody should really see what has happened to the Mayor. The News hates to advertise again.

It seems a pity that just because Alderman Morrissey pledged himself before election not to sell the city's long term issues for a price as low as ninety, that the best interests of the city must be jeopardised.

Both the Mayor and the Chairman of the Finance Committee had so far committed themselves on the subject before coming into office that they have treated with indifference offers of less than ninety since received for the long term issues, and the city must suffer in consequence.

When a city elects men to conduct its financial affairs, who have no knowledge of the subject in hand, or who are guided in their decisions by prejudice, the city must expect to foot the bill.

The Mayor says he won't try to sell any more debentures until the Council makes up its own mind on the situation. It is evident that there will be no debentures sold this year.

What reliance is to be placed in men who one minute strongly advocate a plebiscite on the financial question and drop it like a hot potato the next?

No attempt has been made by the Council this year to dispose of the city's long term issues.

Alderman Morrissey seems to dominate the situation, and the policy pursued has been one of "drift."

Mr. H. S. Clements, the member for Ottawa from this district—that is the "popular" member—spent a few days in town recently, but departed as quietly as the proverbial gentleman who stole away in the night.

It is not on record that our member was overly anxious to talk of the postoffice deal while he was here, and in fact he apparently had so little to talk about that after a brief grand stand play, supplemented by the usual salutations from the little trombone, our member betook himself to other parts, doubtless to his home in Vancouver.

A THREE-TIMES DERBY WINNER

This picture of Lord Rosebery, who is with the Hon. T. Ager-Robartes, was taken on Epsom Downs, England, last week. Lord Rosebery appropriately enough is entitled to call himself Baron Epsom of Epsom. He has won the Derby three times—with Ladas in 1894, Sir Visto in 1895, and Cicero in 1905. Lord Rosebery has been ill for some time, but is now recovering nicely from his indisposition.

MANY ARE DEAD IN AMERICAN FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION

NUMEROUS FATALITIES RECORDED WHEN EAGLE SCREAMS IN THE STATES—STORM, WRECK AND EXPLOSIONS CAUSE SUFFERING

Macon, Ga., July 7.—Six persons were seriously injured and more than a score of others hurt when a Fourth of July excursion train on the Georgia Southern & Florida Railroad collided head-on with a Macon & Birmingham Railroad passenger train, seven miles south of here.

Neither of the trains was running more than twenty miles an hour, according to witnesses, and it is believed this prevented the wreck from being more serious. The engines met on a thirty-foot trestle and were wrecked. Both trains, however, remained on the track.

One Death on "Sane" 4th
Duluth, July 7.—Duluth's third "sane fourth of July opened with the death of a boy from tetanus, due to a wound from an exploding cartridge.

William Packer, aged 14, was tinkering with a 15-calibre revolver shell when it exploded.

Two Killed by Storm
Sallisaw, Okla., July 7.—Two persons were killed and ten seriously injured in a picnic ground near Sallisaw when a building in which many persons had taken refuge from a storm, was struck by lightning and wrecked. Several thousand persons were on the ground attending a Fourth of July celebration and political rally. United States Senator Gore who had just finished speaking when the crowd was driven to shelter, was not injured.

Burned to Death
Wilson Creek, Wash., July 7.—A few charred bones were buried with an Odd Fellows' service as the final rites over the remains of John T. Friend, who was burned to death in his home, which was consumed by fire. The victim was a pioneer of this country, had served in the civil war and was about 75 years old.

In attempts to save valuable papers when the home was afire, the frenzied man, after being barred out of the house, entered unnoticed through a side window and before he could get out was struck by the falling roof.

ONE YARD OF KISS ENOUGH FOR HER

It Must Not Last Longer Than Thirty-six Seconds, Rule Movie Censors

Philadelphia, July 7.—Mrs. Cyrus Niver, the only woman member of the new state moving picture censorship board, has come to the conclusion that one yard of film is long enough for one kiss, after several weeks spent here in passing on thousands of yards of love-drama films.

Love scenes and historic romances, thrilling escapes and runaways, harrowing deathbed repentance and wild elopements, the excess of poverty and the extreme of wealth, all pass in review before her. She judges each film from the view point of adolescence.

Will it harm the child? What effect will it have on the grown boy or girl? These are the questions Mrs. Niver asks herself.

She has sat through yards and yards of kisses of every variety, and her ultimatum, after watching an embrace which occupied five yards of film, was that four yards should be eliminated and that the young people should be torn from each other after thirty-six seconds of osculation.

WILL START CLUB FOR THEIR MINERS

Montana Continental Development Co. to Provide Amusement for Men at Mine

D. J. Williams, superintendent for the Montana Continental Development Company, which is operating the Roher de Boule mine, was in town last week and reported the work progressing more satisfactorily than in the past. One trouble they have experienced has been in getting men and then keeping them. To overcome this he proposes erecting immediately a club house at the camp and fitting it up with pool and billiard tables, card room and reading room and making it very attractive for the men. Every man on the company's pay roll will be a member of the club and everything will be free with the exception of soft drinks, tobacco, cigars, etc., and these will be put in at cost. In this way Mr. Williams hopes to make the life of the miners more attractive.

Asks for His Resignation

Philadelphia, July 7.—President Wilson has requested the resignation of George Fred Williams, American minister to Greece and Montenegro, as a result of Mr. Williams public statements regarding the situation in Albania. This became known following the President's arrival here today.

The man who puts his savings in oil or mining stocks takes a gambler's chance. He is not an investor; he is a speculator. The man who works for wages and puts by savings for a rainy day cannot afford to take the chance. He wants a safe investment where his capital is secure and brings him in generous rate of interest. That is the kind of investment we recommend to you in the stock of the Prince Rupert Building & Investment Co., Ltd. This company deals solely in Prince Rupert properties. It used the combined capital of many small investors to purchase city property, improve it and make it revenue bearing. The company has no paid officers, the operating expenses do not eat up the profits. It has paid an average of seventeen percent per annum in the past three years.

A limited amount of new capital is being taken in at $11 per share. We recommend it to our clients.
