

NEFF AND BURNS
FOUGHT A DRAW

Crowd Saw Good 20-round Contest in National Sporting Club

Though House Charlie Burns Chet Neff met in another 20-round bout Saturday night and it was a draw. The contest was before a crowded house in the National Sporting Club arena. It was a faster fight than the previous exhibition between these two men, the decision proved a popular one, although it was arrived at in an irregular way. Owing to promoters being unable to get a referee satisfactory to all parties, two members of the press were asked to turn in a ballot in their judgment of the winner.

The referee did the same.
The three were different, one believing for Burns, one for Neff and one a draw. These undoubtedly presented the general opinion of the crowd, and the award was made a draw. Neff, as in the first contest, showed cleverness in boxing and was much faster on his feet but never had a dangerous punch.
The whole effort seemed to be concentrated on getting Burns' face up and damaging his face. His tactics were different. He had plenty of punishment on the head but protected his body well and went after Neff with swings to the kidneys. They were effective, too, but Burns could not be knocked down sufficiently to land a blow on the mat.

In the fifth round Burns had a good swat with a smash in the head but the latter covered up and was able to come up the round in good shape. In the sixth round both opened up and after some vicious exchanges, Burns had the decided advantage over his opponent but did not follow up and lost the best chance of the bout to get a knockout.

It came up well in the Ninth, tenth and eleventh rounds. He after Burns' face and worked him considerably. In the twelfth he got in a whirlwind of punches and Burns took them like a wooden man.

In the twelfth and thirteenth rounds the fighting was good swat on Neff's face and work on the stomach.

In the last few rounds both men were tired but had moments of energy, and it was evident that the fight would go the limit. At the end of the fight Neff showed the effect of punishment much more than his opponent who was unscratched.

Monte Label refereed.

In the preliminary, Cockney and was matched with James but the local boy quit in the second round, deciding that punishment was heavier than the prize.

THE 17" AT THE
MAJESTIC TONIGHT

The big feature at the Majestic tonight and tomorrow night is a Rex two-reel drama based on July 30, entitled "Circumstances." This play draws a vivid picture of a famous secret organization and tells a gripping and an interest story of love and adventure and intrigue. A producer of music incurs the enmity of the organization, and with his wife he flees to America. He followed by the agents of the organization and then follows a series of accidents, strange, enthralling and interest-sustaining. The finish is in a very pleasing manner. In addition to this feature the management have a stunning good comedy. Special attention is being paid to the show which is now one of the pleasing parts of the entertainment. Manager De Lasalle is giving neither time nor expense to give his patrons the best production, and that his efforts are appreciated is evidenced by the fact that he is receiving patronage.

BEWARE
IN PASSING THE BULL

By way of a timely warning to the local jokers, the newspapers reporting a case in St. John, New Brunswick, which shows it is not safe to joke with the soldiers.

When the artillery were engaged at that port a man named is remarked to the soldiers:
"After look out; there are a couple of German cruisers out there." The Colonel in command immediately reported the incident to Ottawa and the man is under arrest charged with disseminating false information regarding the enemy in time of war.

GERMANY WILL FINANCE
WITH PEOPLE'S SAVINGS

Berlin, August 15.—The Nord Deutsche Zeitung declares that Germany has successfully conquered the financial difficulty which followed her mobilization.
The Reichsbank, the newspaper adds, came up to expectations and all the great banking institutions in Berlin and the provinces followed suit. In the public interest no moratorium is desirable or necessary. The people's savings of thirty billion marks (about $7,500,000,000) will be taken first.
All fears are unfounded that the mobilization will interfere with the harvest.

BRITISH SHIPPING
SAFE IN THE SOUTH

New York, August 15.—The Western Atlantic Ocean is clear for shipping in the area as far south as Trinidad, according to announcement made by Admiral Sir Christopher Cradock, of the British cruiser Suffolk, through the British consulate here. The Suffolk is now not far from New York City. The consul said that there were five British warships in the Western Atlantic and that their patrol was so effective that all British shipping interests had been assured that there was little danger from German craft.

OLAV SOLD FOR $760

Hinkson Siddall, marshal of the Admiralty Court of Victoria, was in the city Saturday and held an auction sale of the fishing schooner Olav which was seized some months ago fishing inside the three mile limit and was confiscated. The boat and its equipment sold for $760 to Collart and Bainter. The boat is said to be worth about $3,500 new and is in good shape.

The purchasers have not yet decided what they will do with it.

AVERAGE YIELD 12 BUSHELS

Regina, August 15.—According to the estimate of the Department of Agriculture for Saskatchewan, ten per cent of the wheat, five per cent of barley, and fifteen per cent of oats are now cut.
Harvesting will be general by the first of next week. From present indications the average yield of wheat will be 12 bushels to the acre, oats 20 bushels and barley 20 bushels.

OBSELETE FIGHTING OF
GERMANS CRITICIZED

London, August 15.—One of the most important developments in the eye of experts is the general testimony that the German infantry formation is obsolete and ineffective against weapons of today, and means an enormous slaughter if retained.

France and Austria are finally officially at war, the ambassadors having left the respective capitals. The French Government broke off diplomatic relations with Austria on the ground that Austrian troops were reinforcing the Germans.

AMERICAN CITIZENS
WANT TO AID CANADA

Ottawa, August 17.—Col. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, said that he had received enough offers from American citizens in various parts of the United States to compose four companies, to go to the front.

ALMOST COLLIDED
WITH THE RAINBOW

San Francisco, August 15.—
The American schooner Salva-tore, Captain Flynn, which arrived here today from Oahu (T.H.), reported that she was nearly in collision last Sunday night off Point Reyes with a foreign warship. The stranger was burning no lights and the schooner came so close to her before she was sighted that a crash was narrowly averted. Captain Flynn could not read the cruiser's name, but thought from her build that she was the British cruiser Rainbow.

EASTERN ARTILLERY
IN VANCOUVER

Vancouver, August 17.—The Coburg (Ontario) Heavy Battery, 118 strong, has arrived from the East and brought with them four heavy guns which have been placed in certain places for the defence of Vancouver.

BRITAIN'S NAVAL STRATEGY

This map gives a good idea of the Admiralty's probable move against the German fleets. The German fleet unless it skulks behind fortresses, will probably fail to elude the British cordon and be compelled to give battle between the north coast of Scotland and the rocky shores of Norway.
