(Special to THE NEWS)
Paris, Sept. 3.—A fight in mid-place last evening. Three Ger-rifles and machine guns mounted on public buildings kept up a constant fire. By this means one German machine became separated from the others.

The French aviators flew swiftly in its direction. The Germans opened fire, to which the Frenchmen replied vigorously. The engagement seemed to turn to the disadvantage of the German, who mounted to a higher level and holding this position was saved from further attack.
Finally he disappeared in a northwesterly direction. After a vain pursuit the other German aeroplanes escaped the fire of the guns and after circling a consid-
