FRENCH SOLDIERS MARCHING PAST "GERMAN SPY" SIGN

A remarkable series of posters spotting the countryside of France advertising a German soup were so cleverly printed that they acted as signals to German officers leading forces through France. The Minister of the Interior got wind of the system and they were destroyed. The above picture shows one of these signs posted on the wall of the arch.

GENERAL NEWS IN BRIEF

The Independence Belge, of Brussels, the leading newspaper in Belgium, says the Vatican has warned the Kaiser of the moral consequences of his invasion of Belgian neutrality, which, the Pope said, will discredit Germans throughout the world.

Sir George Paish, the editor of The Statist, the leading financial paper in London, has resigned in order to be able to give his services to the British treasury department in dealing with economic questions arising out of the war.

Out of the hundreds of applications that have come in from trained nurses and young women all over the Dominion 100 will be chosen to go to war with Canada's first army division.

The Canadian government wireless station near Port Arthur, Ont., was wrecked early on the morning of August 14. When the crash of cables and supports were heard, the staff inside the station and in an adjoining building rushed out, but shots fired by two men running away halted them. The damage was serious, but a large staff, supported by a military repair corps immediately began repair work.

As the result of an attempt on the night of August 13 to fire the stores building of the Canadian Ordnance Corps of London, Ont., in which a sentry was wounded by a foreigner, Assistant-Adjutant-General MacDonnell, of the First Division, has issued instructions to the commanding officers of the several military units, ordering them to have all militiamen guarding public works and buildings throughout the division to shoot to kill hereafter.

The Emperor William who was reported to have gone to Aix la Chapelle, near the Belgian border, for the purpose of inspiring his troops, has, on the advice of his friends, decided not to go there, but has gone to Mainz, where he has established his headquarters. The Crown Prince is with him. All the Kaiser's six sons are now serving, five in the army and one in the navy.

The French Aviation Corps is, according to an official statement, doing excellent work and surpassed the Germans in shooting. There have been several air fights, the most thrilling being a battle between a German dirigible and a French aeroplane. The aeroplane, piloted by Aviator Perrin, of the airship squad, stationed at Nancy, flew high above the dirigible and dropped two bombs upon it. The second bomb wrecked the Zeppelin, and all of the 25 members of the crew were killed. An aeroplane carrying two German officers was struck by French bullets while it was more than 2,000 feet in the air, and the pilot had to descend. Both of the Germans were captured.

The Russian Emperor, a Paris correspondent asserts, will sign a proclamation at an early date giving the Jews in his dominions equal civil and political rights with his other subjects.

One hundred and fifty of the passengers and crew of the Austrian Lloyd steamer Baron Gautsch were killed or drowned when the vessel was blown up on August 14 by a mine off the Island of Lussin, on the Dalmatian coast, according to a Reuter dispatch from Trieste. She carried about 300 passengers and crew, of whom about 150 were rescued.

A militia order from Ottawa requires every married man volunteering for active service to bring his wife's written consent before being accepted.

L'Echo de France, the first French daily newspaper in England, began publication on Saturday evening, August 15, in London, with M. T. H. Gringoire as editor.

All private wireless telegraph stations in the Dominion, irrespective of whether such stations are operating under a license granted by the minister of the naval service or not, are to be completely dismantled. The suspicious actions of some private stations have brought this order about by the chief commissioner of the Dominion police.

The Canadian Relief Commission was formed on August 14 at Government House, Ottawa. It brought together representatives of the principal organizations in Canada, and resulted in the selection of a central organization for the purpose of supplying auxiliary aid to the sick and wounded in the field, at home or abroad.

Lieutenant Skeen a military aviator, and his mechanic, Sergeant Barrow, were killed at Netheravon, England, on August 12, when their machine collapsed over a field.

Permission to the German banks in London to resume business has been granted by the British government. They will be placed under the supervision

Lord Roberts

Whose offer to serve in any capacity during the present war has been accepted, and though eighty-two years of age, he has accepted the appointment as Colonel-in-Chief of the Overseas forces which will include the Canadian contingent.

NO SUNDAY CANDIES FOR UPRIGHT TORONTO

Toronto, Sept. 1.—Constantina Zarapontis is a Greek woman, more distinguished for thrift than for religion. She sells candies to ardent swains and swartoothed youngsters, and plied a busy trade on Sunday. As a result, she smiled and bowed before the Magistrate at the Police Court.

"Tell her she mustn't sell candies on Sunday," said his Worship to the interpreter, "for people have to do without candies on Sunday in Toronto, you know."

The woman with the euphonious name raised her eyes in amazement. She spoke something in Greek, which, being interpreted, means: "Poor Toronto!"

WOULD CAN WHALE BEEF

Chicago, Sept. 1.—The whaling industry is commonly supposed to be a thing of the past. Yet it is estimated that $1,000,000,000 are invested in that business today, and one whaling company recently bought out a rival at a price of $1,000,000. Such a business would seem to be rather lively for a back number.

A new scheme has been brought up several times of late which may add still more to the importance—and profits—of whaling. This is the plan to can whale beef and put it on the market as a rival to other forms of canned meat. No doubt this would add considerably to the world's supply, and under the right handling the quality might not be bad.

Japan eats a great deal of whale meat already, and Dr. Grenfell of Labrador considers it very good food. But no one yet has explained how the huge carcasses can be handled in sanitary fashion with the limited equipment possible on a whaling ship. Until this miracle is achieved, it is not likely that whale meat will rival beef and pork in any country peopled by white men.

Make Monday Ironing Day

LET Sunlight Soap do your washing Monday morning and you can do the light ironing Monday afternoon. The rub, rub, rub at the board has no place in the Sunlight way—so with the hardest part of washing cut out you'll feel like making it a good day's work by doing at least part of the ironing.

Follow the directions that cut your work in half and remember there's nothing in Sunlight to injure fine fabric or dainty hand. A $5,000 guarantee backs this statement.
