

Were You There

YESTERDAY

Where? Where? WHY? AT O'REILLY'S SALE

Hundreds of our old customers and many new ones were on hand to partake of the many bargains we had to offer. Some had only $11.90 and got a new Suit of clothes; some good Winter Underwear at $1.90 a suit; one man a good Raincoat at $9.65; another only intended to buy a Dozen Pair of those 25c. Sox at $1.50 a dozen, but he bought all his Winter Underwear and finished up with a nice $25.00 Overcoat for $16.75

Some were in doubt, but came and were convinced and went away satisfied that getting goods at the price we are asking is better than putting money in the bank. These cool mornings remind you that it is now time to buy your fall wearing apparel. This Sale will save you money on every garment you have to buy. What you paid formerly cuts no figure; costs are forgotten. There are scores of new ideas in every department in the store. Get in line and bring you money with you. Everything is cash during this Sale

CAPT. BABINGTON BRINGS NEW TUG BOAT TO HARBOR

Capt. H. B. Babington arrived last night from Vancouver with his new tugboat, the Quinitsa, registered at Prince Rupert.

The Quinitsa, while built for heavy work, is a good looking craft as well. She is 60 feet long with 13 1-2 feet beam. She has a 75 h. p. British Kromhont semi-Diesel oil engine and this is considered the best and most economical feature of the boat. Using crude oil for fuel, the boat can be run at a fuel expense of 25 cents an hour.

A fine big pilot house makes cozy quarters for the captain, while a big roomy cabin has sleeping quarters for several men. The galley is large and well equipped. There are also toilet conveniences aboard the craft.

The Quinitsa will be used by Captain Babington for towing, operating out of Prince Rupert harbor. The craft was built in Vancouver but the engine was supplied by the Rupert Marine Ironworks.
