Comfortable launch for hunting parties. Why not get the best? "Eleanor Mac." West end Government dock. 206-231

Conductor Frank Wells, who has been under the weather for some time, is again able to be around but is not yet able to resume his duties.

When Prince Rupert's dock is ready it will not be necessary to send repairs like that required by the Albert to Esquimalt.

The SS. Prince Albert, in tow of the Salvor, will be brought to Prince Rupert this afternoon.

Mr. W. J. Thams, of Edmonton, has arrived in town and has accepted a position on The Daily News.

C. C. Loop, who has started business for himself on Sixth Street, is well and favorably known in the city, having been employed in two of the local jewelry stores. Besides being an expert watch repairer, Mr. Loop is a graduate optician of Bradley Polytechnic Institute, of Peoria, Ill., and able to supply anything in that line.

The second of the pontoons for Prince Rupert's large floating dock was launched yesterday afternoon at 2:30.

"FIRST LADY OF THE WORLD." Empress Eugenie, Now 88, One to Whom Revenge Must Be Sweet.

There is one old lady of 88, who, if she still retains the power of following daily events, must be above everyone else on earth be absorbed by the battle in France.

When the Allies drove the First Napoleon from his throne, Marshal Blucher, the Prussian general, wanted very much to have the French emperor executed.

It would be interesting to know what that bewitching young Spanish countess in a green dress, who captivated the heart of an emperor, but now grown very venerable, thinks about it.

The SS. Prince Albert, in tow of the Salvor, will be brought to Prince Rupert this afternoon.

VAST DEMANDS TO BE MADE ON GERMANY

Britain Will See That Belgium is Adequately Repaid for Losses.

New York, Sept. 23.—A London cable to The Tribune says: France is expected here to demand, not only the relinquishment of Alsace-Lorraine, when the time comes for Germany to settle with the Allies, but also the return of the billion dollars indemnity of 1870.

As a matter of fact, however, London is not talking much of peace, and rumors from America of some suggestions from Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador at Washington, arouse little comment.

One thing, if the British have their way, is the dismantlement of the German fleet. Then there is the indemnity for Belgium, which, it is said, will be enormous.

PROPER TREATMENT FOR MORTGAGES NOW

"This is a time for consideration and mercy—and both must be freely given."—Mr. J. K. Macdonald, president of the Confederation Life Association.

EARL KITCHENER HELD UP PRINCE OF WALES FROM GOING TO FRONT

London, Sept. 23.—The Prince of Wales was very anxious to go to the front, according to a statement issued by the official press bureau, and tried to get Lord Kitchener's consent to do so.

The official information bureau announces that on September 18, Commander Sampson, with a motorcar attachment, connected with the flying corps, encountered a patrol of five Uhlans near Soullens, France, killing four and wounding and capturing the fifth.

UHLANS TIED TO HORSES.

Paris, Sept. 22.—Some of the French wounded state that many of the German cavalrymen seem to be tied to their horses. Uhlans apparently lifeless were seen hanging over the necks of their horses running wild.

Lydia Luther, an Indian girl and an old offender, got a six-months' sentence in the police court this morning for disorderly conduct.
