

THE DAILY NEWS

GET THE LATEST WAR NEWS FIRST IN THE DAILY NEWS

PRINCE RUPERT, B. C., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1914.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

ENEMY IS CHECKED

BRITISH CAPTURE MERCHANTMEN AND GUNBOATS

RUPERT FAIR IS GRAND SUCCESS THE DISPLAYS ARE OF HIGH ORDER

PLAY OF VEGETABLES CANNOT BE BEATEN ANYWHERE ON CONTINENT—GRAVENSTEIN APPLES FROM LAKEELSE AND KITSUMKALUM ARE EXEMPLARY IN QUALITY.

The Fall Fair is a grand success. The weather for the opening was excellent and the crowd large and gay. The building, which is a credit to Prince Rupert, was dressed in its Sunday

From Lakelse and Kitsumkalum there is also an exhibit that would do credit to an old established country. Gravenstein apples in all their glory are shown, and all kinds of vegetables and fruits in abundance.

The Bulkley Valley, too, was there with fells and was quite convincing in the variety and quality of their products.

Anyone visiting the fair cannot help being convinced that the possibilities of this country are immense. If the Fair has only done one thing, it has done that. The soil is rich and the climate is quite suitable to a large variety of fruits and vegetables as well as alfalfa, hay and grains of all kinds. Indeed, the grains of the Bulkley Valley cannot be beaten before that island.

GERMANS NOW PLAN TO ATTACK BRITISH SHORES AND FLEET

THEY ARE SUCCESSFUL IN TAKING ANTWERP THEY WILL USE THIS FOR A BASE AGAINST THE POWER OF BRITAIN—IF THIS FAILS THE WAR WILL END.

According to the plan, the Germans will come overhead by aeroplanes and underwater by submarines to make an attack on the British fleet, together with an attempt to land troops from Antwerp.

If Germany fails to strike this overwhelming blow the war will end quickly.

GERMANS HOLDING OWN IN AISNE BATTLE

Paris, Oct. 1.—The official bulletin says: On our left wing of the Somme the action continues to develop rapidly. To the north, between Oise and Aisne, the enemy has delivered an attack. Tracy le Mont, being repulsed with heavy losses. On the center a relative calm prevails along the entire front. We have made slight progress between Argonne and the Meuse. In the Woëvre district there have been severe battles. Our troops have advanced at several points.

BRUTAL MURDER NEAR NEW HAZELTON

Watchman on Bridge Killed and Throat Cut From Ear to Ear—An Indian Arrested.

Hazelton, Oct. 1.—Harry Taylor, who took an active part in the capture of one or more of the New Hazelton bank robbers last April, was found murdered half a mile west of the South Hazelton railway station Tuesday morning. Taylor had been acting as guard on the Sealey Gulch bridge. His throat was cut from ear to ear and there were other wounds on his body.

John May, a Hazelton Indian, is now under arrest and the police are almost confident they have the murderer, blood stains being found on the clothing of the prisoner. Only an hour elapsed from the time the murdered man was found until the Indian was under arrest. The Indian is known in Prince Rupert and Port Essington.

Great praise is attributed to Chief Minty for his quick work in the case. Liquor was the cause of the crime.

Taylor was murdered in a similar manner to that of Kenneth, on the Kispiox road last December.

ITALY AND TURKEY

Paris, Oct. 1.—A Rome dispatch says that Italy is ready to protest against the abolition of capitulations at Constantinople.

ITALY PROTESTS TO VIENNA GOVT. OVER SINKING FISHING-BOAT

Rome, Oct. 1.—As a result of the sinking of an Italian fishing boat by an Austrian mine, the Italian government has instructed its ambassador at Vienna to enter an energetic protest against mines which prevent the safe and free navigation of the Adriatic.

S.S. PRINCE GEORGE ON RUN SUNDAY

Seattle, Oct. 1.—The G. T. P. announces that the northern service will be resumed Sunday, when the Prince George will be restored to the coastwise run.

BRITISH OFFICERS PROMOTED FROM RANKS

London, Oct. 1.—To fill up the gaps in the ranks of officers caused by the casualties in France, the war office is promoting a large number of non-commissioned officers. The first list of these appointments just appeared.

ROUMANIAN CABINET TO CONSIDER WAR QUESTION

London, Oct. 1.—A Bucharest dispatch says the King of Roumania has called a cabinet meeting for tomorrow to decide on the attitude of Roumania regarding war.

An Antwerp dispatch says the garrison there made sorties from various points, repulsing the Germans with heavy losses. The bombardment of the outlying forts by the Germans continues.

HELP WANTED FOR FRENCH RAILWAYS

London, Oct. 1.—The British War Office has issued a call for 1,000 expert railroad men to help operate the French railways. The French railroadmen are all at the front.

GERMAN WARSHIPS ATTACKING JAPANESE

Tokio, Oct. 1.—German warships opened a severe engagement today, cannonading the Japanese position at Tsing Tau. Two officers were killed. A German destroyer was sunk by the Japanese guns. A Japanese mine sweeper was destroyed by a mine.

THE WEATHER.

(5 a. m., October 1, 1914.)
Barometer ..... 29.337
Max. temp. .... 50.0
Min. temp. .... 45.0
Rainfall ..... .02

Everything in season cooked the way you like it. London Cafe.

AUSTRIAN GOVT. ON ITS KNEES TO ITALIAN PROTESTS

Rome, Oct. 1.—The Austrian government replied to the Italian protest against floating mines in the Adriatic. It deplores the damage to Italian vessels and promises to indemnify the families of the victims and take steps to remove the menace. It can be safely said that it is no friendship for Italy that prompts this action.

BOSTONIANS PRESENTED "THE LOVES OF LENORE"

The Bostonians added another success to their already long line of hits when they presented "The Loves of Lenore" at the Westholme last night. The members of the company seem to get in better touch with their audience every night and they are now "putting over" their performance with a vim and evident desire to please that is making them a firm friend in everyone who attends. "Baron Humbug" will be the offering for tonight. This opera is said to be the most pretentious, musically speaking, of anything they have presented to date, the book and music being by R. A. Barnett, who has written some of the greatest Broadway successes of the past few years. Tomorrow night, Broadway's first musical comedy hit, "The Show Girl," will be given.

One of the most interesting exhibits at the Fair are those grown on Prince Rupert lots, which people once thought impossible. Constable Adams took first prize for a general display. Other excellent exhibits were from W. J. Kirkpatrick, J. E. Unwin, W. McD. Hunter and Mrs. Truberg. Mr. Kirkpatrick had the only exhibit of a tobacco plant, which is very creditable.

The Daughters of the Empire will hold a bridge tournament in the Knights of Pythias Hall on the evening of October 8, the proceeds to be used for patriotic purposes. The Dolly-Douglas Co. has donated two very handsome prizes.

Tomorrow morning at 9:30 in the members enclosure of the Exhibition Building Mr. H. E. Upton, provincial government poultry expert, will give a lecture to the farmers.

This afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock, the Indian band contest will be brought off. Mr. A. H. Hoelscher, the new bandmaster, will be the judge.

Tonight at the City Hall, opening at 8 o'clock, the annual general meeting of the Northern B. C. Agricultural and Industrial Association will be held.

WELTERWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP OF CANADA
---20-ROUND BOXING CONTEST---
TONIGHT --- TONIGHT
ROMEO HAGEN, of Seattle
 Versus
FRANK BARRIEAU, of Vancouver (Title Holder)
GOOD PRELIMINARY CARD
 Doors Open at 10 P. M.—Commence at 10:30 P. M. Sharp
 Main Bout at 11:15
 Ringside Reserved $3—General Admission $2
TICKETS ON SALE AT ALL CIGAR STORES

OFFICIAL BULLETIN SAYS SITUATION IS QUITE SATISFACTORY

Paris, Oct. 1.—The French official bulletin today says that there has been no change in the general situation. "We have nevertheless made progress on our left north of Somme and on the right in the southern Woëvre district," says the bulletin.

TONIGHT'S BOXING BOUT.

Both boys wound up their training last night in excellent shape. The result of tonight's bout will mean a good thing for the winner.

Barrieau and Hagen have already fought three drawn battles, and no doubt Hagen will be all out to wrest the welterweight Canadian championship from the holder.

On account of extra expenditure the promoters have been forced to raise the price of admission. General admission tickets will be on sale at all the cigar stands up to 6:30 p. m. at $1.50.

There is a good preliminary card. The doors open at 10 p. m. and the main bout commences at 11:15. The Metlakatla band has been engaged for the evening.

EXHIBITION PROGRAM.

Tonight's program of entertainment as provided by the Exhibition management is as follows:
Piano Solo.....Mrs. A. H. Hoelscher
Selections.....Male Voice Choir
Pierrots.....Pierrots' Chorus
Vocal Solo.....Mrs. William Millar
National Dances.....Scandinavian Dancers
Rayonet Exercises.....Irish Fusiliers

Late reports say the body of Hoyt was not found yesterday. It is time a large search party was sent from Prince Rupert. Perhaps a body of soldiers could be had. Something should be done at once.

The Skugate, of the cold storage, lost her rudder on her last trip. She was brought intoday.

The Metlakatla band is giving excellent musical service. The boys across the water have taken a special interest in the Fair. Other contributions to the music of the Fair were from Mrs. Bryant, Miss Stewart, Sergeant McIntyre, Miss Neuman and J. E. Davie. The Kitkatla band will be heard from today.

The Western Plumbing Company has a fine exhibition of heating plants and general plumbing.

The bodies of Clayton and Flewen, who were drowned in the Skeena on Tuesday, have not been recovered and there is little hope that they will, since there is a terrific current in that place. Clayton fell in the river from a launch and Dick Flewen jumped into save him, both being lost.

Chief Gammon, of the provincial police, with a gang of men, is searching the woods for the body of L. J. Hoyt, but no reports of success have yet come in.

E. E. Confectionery sells high class ice cream in bricks; also pure candies. 155tf.

Are your books behind or out of balance? If so, apply Box 120, Daily News. 227tf.

Comfortable launch for hunting parties. Why not get the best? "Eleanor Mae." West end Government dock. 206-234

FIERCE CONTEST STILL ON—GERMANS STILL HELD IN CHECK

FIERCE FIGHT ON AT JUNCTION OF AISNE AND OISE—COUNTER ATTACK OF ALLIES RELIEVES SITUATION FOR THE PRESENT.

Paris, Oct. 1.—The Germans continue a fierce attack in the angle formed by the Rivers Oise and Aisne. In the direction of Tracy and Lemont, northeast of the forest of Aigue, the contest has been singularly desperate, but the Allies by delivering counterattacks have checked the bold attempts of the foe.

AUSTRIAN ARMY SURROUNDED DEFEAT IS MADE COMPLETE

AFTER SEVERAL DAYS FLEEING BEFORE THE RUSSIAN FORCE THEY ARE OVERTAKEN AND SURROUNDED—ALL FOOD AND WAR MATERIALS TAKEN BY RUSSIANS.

Rome, Oct. 1.—The Russian ambassador announces that the Austrian army which had been fleeing before the Russians has been surrounded near Douklo and that the defeat is complete.

All food, ammunition and war material being conveyed to Austria fell into the Russian hands.

SKIPPER THOUGHT MINE WAS CASK OF WINE

Came Toward It and Threw Out Rope to Draw It Near—Exploded Killing All.

(Special to The Daily News—12 Noon)

Rome, Oct. 1.—Details of the destruction of the fishing boat off Rimini by a floating mine shows that the fisherman mistook the mine for a cask of wine, which he sought to recover by throwing a rope overboard. He drew the supposed cask toward him and when it touched his craft the explosion occurred. The boat was blown to pieces. All nine men aboard were killed.

Hundreds of mines from the Austrian coast are believed to have drifted towards the Italian side. Coastwise shipping has been stopped.

TERRIFIC STORM ON THE NORTH SEA

Copenhagen, Oct. 1.—The severest storm in living memory is raging over Denmark and the North Sea.

RUSSIANS CAPTURED GERMAN POSITIONS

Petrograd, Oct. 1.—On September 28 the Russian troops, after a series of fierce conflicts, captured the German positions at Augustow and Koptzyewo.

The German siege artillery is continuing the bombardment of Ossowetz, in Russian Poland, without success.

Small engagements have taken place at Ichtseheentschin, in the vicinity of Andreyev, in Russian Poland.

GERMANS GETTING READY FOR RETREAT

Rotterdam, Oct. 1.—Dispatches from the south indicate that the preparation for a retreat of the German right has already begun. The German troops were observed coming from North France towards Tournau and Mons, prepared to cover the main army in case of a retreat.

SERVIANS RETAKE SEMLIN AND ADVANCE

Paris, Oct. 1.—After a sanguinary combat the Serbian troops have retaken Semlin. This secures an advantage, they being able now to take the offensive.

WHY ITALY PROTESTS TO VIENNA GOVT.

Rome, Oct. 1.—Another floating mine has exploded near Rimini, Italy, blowing up a fishing boat, killing nine of the crew and injuring several others.

JAPANESE BUSY.

Tokio, Oct. 1.—It is officially announced that a portion of the Japanese fleet has landed a force which has occupied Lao Che harbor in the neighborhood of Tsing Tau. They took four field guns abandoned by the Germans.

CRUISER LEIPZIG AGAIN HEARD FROM

Lima, Oct. 1.—It is officially announced that the German cruiser Leipzig and the naval tug Marie received coal from the German steamer Anasis at Lobon de Tierra.

GERMANS RUSHING TROOPS TO FRANCE

Paris, Oct. 1.—All the German troops, at Schleswig, in Prussia, have been sent hurriedly to France and Belgium.

UNFORTIFIED TOWN REPORTED DESTROYED

London, Oct. 1.—The Daily Mail correspondent reports the destruction by heavy artillery of Albert, an unfortified town eighteen miles from Amiens which has been the scene during the past few days of a prolonged and terribly murderous artillery battle.