several of his old friends here on Saturday night. He was on his way to Fort Fraser.

* NEW HAZELTON NOTES *

British navy today we should be at the mercy of the banditti of Berlin, and civilization would go backward 400 years, and remain there for the rest of this generation. Great Britain stands between us and a catastrophe beyond description. So long as we have the conditions that produced this war we must remember that a part of these conditions is the necessity of being prepared to repel the assaults of capitalistic savagery. I was glad to read your analysis, and to note your faith in the eventual tri-bridge to the far side.

There he put the gun down and the Maxim being still charged, opened a hail of bullets upon the advancing Germans, who wavered and then broke and fled to cover, leaving scores of dead behind.

At this moment the Highlander himself was killed, but he had rithish reinforcements arriving in checked the German advance, and the British reinforcements arriving the Germans abandoned the attempt to capture the bridge.
Afterward it was found that the Highlander's body had thirty
