ZEPPELIN PLANTS NOW WORKING NIGHT AND DAY

ALLIES OUTNUMBER GERMANS CAN ALLOW REST TO TROOPS

GERMANS AT THE SAME TIME MUST REMAIN CONSTANTLY IN THE TRENCHES—NEW GERMAN FORCE COMING TO PREVENT FLANKING MOVEMENT.

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.) London, Oct. 7.—The most important development of the fighting in France is reported to be a movement of a German force 20,000 strong southward through Belgium toward the French border. This is probably intended to prevent further extension of the Allies' turning movement. The fighting along the Meuse and the Aisne has developed into a gigantic sniping engagement with artillery. Both sides are so well entrenched that the casualties are few. The Allies are well content to play the waiting game. They outnumber the Germans now and can give their men rest, while the Germans are compelled to remain in the trenches constantly.

The German troops are stated to have withdrawn on Tsingtau itself. It was added that the British and Japanese troops are preparing for a decisive advance.

A liberal measure on behalf of the Finns is also prepared. The French have mined the Adriatic in a zone which comprises all the Austrian waters. Great Britain prohibited the exportation of raw wool.

FIRST FISH TRAIN MAKES FAST SPEED

The G. T. P. is already accomplishing all that its advocates claimed for it in the early days in the way of a quick route to the east. The cars of fish that left here Wednesday last at 10 a. m. were landed in Chicago at 5 p. m. the following Sunday, a little more than four days. This, too, with a new track that still needs a little ballasting. When everything is in first class running order this time will be cut down more still.

GERMANS HAVE SHOT THEIR BOLT; IT HAS BEEN IN VAIN

ALL THEIR AVAILABLE MEN IN THE FIGHT, AND THE ALLIES HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL—AGED SOLDIERS USED IN THE FINAL EFFORT—BELGIANS HOLDING THEM OFF.

London, Oct. 5.—Everything promises well for the Allies in Northern France. The Germans have flung their last strategic reserves into the fighting line. Their total available force along a 150 mile front probably does not exceed eighteen army corps, six hundred thousand combatants, with four hundred thousand holding the lines of communication. Many of these troops are comparatively elderly men, a second band of the Landsturm, having been called to the front to replace the enormous losses. These seniors, as former experience has proved, lack the dash and impetuosity of other soldiers, although they are stubborn defensive fighters. The Germans are suffering severely from lack of food, some sections going for days together with almost nothing to eat. The German staff made titanic efforts to reinforce the lines, but the serious situation on the Russian side absorbs their major forces. They are doing everything that desperation of courage can devise to retrieve the situation. They have apparently only the older troops in Central Belgium. After ten days of almost continuous fighting around Tervuren they have not succeeded in making any substantial advance, the Belgian army successfully holding them and inflicting substantial punishment. Battles are never certain until finished, but this battle today gives good grounds for high hopes. The Germans have prepared exceedingly strong lines of retreat. They hold entrenched positions with tremendous obstinacy.

GERMANS DESTROYING BRIDGES AND STATIONS NEAR TSING TAU

(Special to The Daily News.) Peking, Oct. 6 (5 p. m.).—Information from a reliable source says that last night the Germans ordered the destruction of all railroad bridges and stations still under control on the line through Shantung province. The British battleship Triumph has participated in the bombardment of Tsing Tau.

The lineup was as follows: Men's Own—Davis, Barrie, Weston, Davis and Shiruball. The C. C.'s—Ed. Murphy, Fortin, J. Murphy, Astorid and Greenwell. The C. C.'s accepted the challenge hurled at them by the Tigers, who have held the championship of the city for the past two years. The game is to be played next Tuesday, October 13th.

RUSSIANS ENJOYING KAISER'S ESTATE

London, Oct. 5.—A letter received here from a Russian officer who is camping on the estate of Emperor William, at Rominten, East Prussia, says: "William's estate is magnificently equipped and we have everything at our disposal we could wish. We are enjoying particularly delicious dinners prepared by his fine cooks. 'His parks swarm with wild animals and birds.' We are teaching his parrots the Russian language, and they are learning to address their imperial master with compliments I should blush to repeat in company."

LOCAL RESIDENCE BURNED TO GROUND

A fire occurred last evening at about 8 o'clock on Ninth avenue which resulted in practically the complete loss of the home and contents of Sam Calkins. At the time of the outbreak both Mr. and Mrs. Calkins were absent. They had gone down town and it is supposed the fire started from the stove. W. Adams, police officer, who lives a little distance away, saw the flames, but not until the building was practically doomed. He rang in to the fire department but it was too late to save the building. The department got on the ground as quickly as possible, but it is necessary at that point to carry the hose about three blocks, which somewhat retarded the work of fighting the flames. When the department got the water playing on it the fire was soon extinguished, but while the frame of the building stands it is practically useless. Mr. Calkins carried some insurance, but not sufficient to cover the loss.

Funeral Services.

A funeral service was held over the remains of the late L. J. Hoyt yesterday afternoon, Rev. W. W. Wright officiating. A large number of friends and acquaintances of the deceased turned out to pay the last respects. There was also a profusion of flowers, which showed the esteem in which Mr. Hoyt was held by his many friends.
