ANTWERP FALLS—RUSSIANS TAKE 10,000 PRISONERS

BELGIANS SURRENDER ANTWERP; WHITE FLAG HOISTED YESTERDAY

BRITISH GOVERNMENT CONFIRMS REPORT—AFTER FURIOUS
ATTACK BY GERMANS IT WAS DECIDED TO EVACUATE
CITY—NOTRE DAME CATHEDRAL NOT DAMAGED.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Oct. 10.—The British government announces that Antwerp was evacuated by the Belgians yesterday.
The Hague, Oct. 10.—Antwerp surrendered to the Germans at 3:30 Friday afternoon. The war flag was removed from the cathedral and the white flag raised its place at 9 in the morning. The actual surrender took place at 11 and a half hours later. The Germans delivered their last furious attacks between 6 and 7 o'clock Friday morning. The Belgians resisted valiantly and desperate fighting resulted in heavy losses to both sides. The Cathedral of Notre Dame has not been damaged.
London, Oct. 10.—The Morning Post says it has been informed on good authority that Antwerp has fallen. The official press bureau is unable to confirm the foregoing. A telegram from the Rotterdam correspondent says that a more hopeful view prevails regarding Antwerp. Refugees from the city declare that not a single German soldier has yet entered Antwerp. The Belgian minister is unable to confirm the fall of Antwerp. (The foregoing is an earlier despatch. There is no doubt about the surrender.)

RELIEVED THE SURPRISE WAS LAID BY THE BRITISH RELIEF
FORCE—EXPERTS NOW THINK ANTWERP CAN HOLD OUT TILL RELIEVED.

(Special to The Daily News—9 A. M.)
London, Oct. 10.—Attempting to smash a force of Allies south of Antwerp, a large body of German troops has fallen into a trap and been destroyed, it was stated this afternoon. How the Allies happened to be operating south of Antwerp is not explained, but the impression exists that they constituted the force which was

RUSSIANS TOOK 10,000 PRISONERS

(Special to The Daily News—10:30 A. M.)
Petrograd, Oct. 10.—A despatch says the Russians took 10,000 prisoners and 40 cannon in the latest fighting in East Prussia.

LEIPZIG IS REPORTED SAILING TO PANAMA; SHIPPING SUSPENDED

Panama, Oct. 7.—Shipping along the western coast of South America has been almost suspended, owing to the reputed presence in those waters of the German cruiser Leipzig, which is reported to have sunk two British ships in the last week. British lines operating ships from Balboa to the south have withdrawn their sailings, thus delaying the mails for Santiago, Chile and points beyond. Only Chilean and Peruvian boats are now plying to the ports on the west coast. According to reports reaching here, the Leipzig is sailing toward Panama, but it is impossible to verify these rumors.

City Band Practice.

The members of the city band held their first practice last night under the leadership of Mr. Hoelscher, and they feel like a bunch of tickled kittens this morning. Mr. Hoelscher convinced the men that he understands the leading of a band, and the drill last night put all doubts as to his capability as a professional bandmaster on the shelf. At last Rupert will have its own city band, and it is up to all business men and citizens to help the same along. Next Tuesday night the next rehearsal is called, which means that twenty-two men will be present. The boys are practicing on borrowed instruments and borrowed music.

HOW A UNIVERSITY FARES AT GERMAN HANDS—LOUVAIN.

The destruction of the ancient university town of Louvain by the Germans suggests what might have happened to Oxford or Cambridge in the event of a German invasion. The destruction of the "Oxford of Belgium" has raised indignant protests from all parts of the world against such an incredible act of vandalism on the part of a nation which boasts of its "culture."

Empress Theatre.

Prof. Alexander, who begins a series with a free lecture Tuesday evening next in the Empress Theatre, is said to be one of the best entertainers on the platform today. He has lectured in all the large cities in both Canada and the United States, and the following, taken from the Montreal Star, shows in what estimation he is held: "Sparkling with wit and checked with merriment, yet, withal, full of sound advice and practical hints, the lecture of Professor Alexander at the Association Hall was well calculated to display the versatility of the lecturer and the wide resources of his knowledge of human nature." The first lecture is free and that the Empress will be filled goes without saying.

Neighbors found the mangled body in a field near his home early yesterday morning. Spearman left his house to call on a neighbor and was crossing the field when attacked.

EFFECT OF ANTWERP'S FALL

The fall of Antwerp is one of the worst blows in the campaign. There were 150,000 Belgian soldiers in the city, but whether these have surrendered or not is not known. It shows that in attacking fortresses the Germans are supreme. Indeed, this is their strongest point, for in the open field the Allies have proven their superiority.

The German cry will now be "On to London," and that's the very thing the British want. In this attempt they will have to take their navy out and then the "British Dogs" will get a chance. The result in such a case no Britisher fears and it is to be hoped that the Germans will make the try.

The fall of Antwerp, too, will hearten the enemy, but then that is also the very thing that will nerve the British and the Allies. With Antwerp out of the way of course the Germans will have another quarter of a million men to throw against the Allies. This will bring about a new phase of the battle of the Aisne, so that the next few days are pregnant with results for the future world.

ANTWERP IN FLAMES; NO ATTEMPT TO QUENCH

(Special to The Daily News—10:30 A. M.)

Paris, Oct. 10.—A light blue German aeroplane approached Paris, but disappeared when chased by the French air sentinels. The Chronicle says that every sign indicates that Antwerp is falling. The town is in flames through the southern section. No attempt is made to quench them.

MORE SUCCESS FOR THE ALLIES IN NORTHERN FRANCE

(Special to The Daily News—9 A. M.)

Paris, Oct. 10.—The Allies are advancing in Northern France, the war office has proclaimed today. The fighting seemed to be confined to the Allies and the Germans' two wings. Gen. Gallieni, as well as the war office, was the authority for the statement that it was progressing satisfactorily from the Franco-British standpoint.

JAPS SINK THREE GERMAN SHIPS

Tokio, Oct. 7.—The belief was expressed at the war office today that the German cruiser Cormorant and two other German gunboats had been sunk in Kiauchau Bay. The Japanese army has occupied the Shantung railway as far west as Chinan.

Election Not Wanted.

Those who have started the talk of a general election in Canada are poor imitations of good citizens. Those who are spreading the talk are as bad. Those who support it are worse. The British Empire is engaged in the greatest struggle of its history, and the first in which the concentrated labor, energy and sacrifice of its units have been needed. To make political capital of the situation is nasty work. If certain members of the Dominion cabinet want a general election, they should recognize, first, that the people of Canada do not want one. Our citizens could not be enthusiastic in a political fight at home when such a war rages abroad. About the causes, justice and stakes of that war, all Liberals and Conservatives in Canada are agreed. We may well be content with the leadership of Borden and the loyal assistance of Laurier. There is no need whatever to celebrate the government's policy with a general election. Whichever party had been in power, the same policy would have prevailed in this time of crisis.—Monetary Times.
