ALLIES WIN GREAT VICTORY—

(Special to The Daily News—9:30 A. M.)

The German General Staff has left Ghent.

There are strong rumors of a severe German defeat, says the Rotterdam correspondent of the Daily Mail. Messages from the northwest frontier agree that the German coast army is being rolled up like a ribbon.

FRENCH OFFICIAL REPORT SHOWS GOOD PROGRESS

(Special to The Daily News—9:30 A. M.)

Paris, Oct. 23.—(Official)—Activity was displayed yesterday by the Allies in the neighborhood of the Meuse. A battle continues with great violence, without the Germans being able to force back the Allied troops.

Between Arras and the Oise the Allies made determined efforts, which at no point were crowned with success.

In the Argonne we have made progress. To the north of Verdun we gained ground at Haumont and Blandin on the Meuse. In the latter region we repulsed an attack at Champlon.

BLIND BEGGAR
BECOMES TYRANT

A blind Austrian has been travelling on a begging tour through this country using a bright little boy of about fifteen summers as his guide.

He hired the boy six months ago in Mendota, Wash., and agreed to pay him thirty dollars per month but when he got the boy away from home he began to treat him as a slave. Not only did he refuse to pay him, but he abused and terrorized him until the boy was too scared to protest.

A week ago, however, the boy stole a march on his tyrant by dropping a postal card to his mother. The mother immediately wrote to the local police and asked to have the boy sent home. By this time the beggar tyrant had gone to Granby Bay but he was gone after and brought back to town. The boy was taken away from him and is now as happy as a clam behind the bars of Victoria's Hotel. He will be sent back to his mother. The beggar is still at large in the city as no charge has been laid against him.

The boy's name is George Gillan. He was born in the States of a Serbian father and Austrian mother.

FRENCH WARSHIPS
JOIN THE BRITISH ON BELGIAN COAST

(Special to The Daily News—1:30 P. M.)

London, Oct. 23.—Vessels from the French navy have crept around the coast and today are standing by the British monitors hurling shells landward between Ostend and Nieuport on the Belgian coast.

GERMAN CRUISER
REPORTS BIG DAMAGES

(Special to The Daily News—10:30 A. M.)

London, Oct. 23.—A dispatch from Tenerife, Canary Islands, says the German cruiser Karlsruhe has sunk thirteen British merchantmen in the Atlantic since the beginning of the war. They were mostly engaged in the South American trade and had a tonnage of 60,000. Word was brought to Tenerife by the German steamer, which landed the crews of a number of British ships.

DOCTOR'S FEE $35,000

Demanding Just What Germans
Levied on Town to Attend
German Prince.

Paris, Oct. 23.—"A fee of $35,000 was paid to a French doctor for operating upon a wounded Imperial prince of Germany," said The Matin yesterday.

"When they entered Epernay, the Germans collected a war contribution of $35,000. During the battle of the Marne the prince was grievously wounded. No German surgeons happened to be in Epernay so that the Germans asked a well known local man, Dr. Veron, to operate and expressed a willingness to pay any fee demanded.

"Veron fixed an amount equal to the war contribution, and the same day the German army treasurer paid the sum in German gold."

VICTORY NOT CONFIRMED

The early morning dispatches brought news of a German defeat and although not official seemed to be in line with the reports of the fighting on the west coast for the last few days. Later dispatches, however, have nothing to say about this, which would indicate that the report has not been confirmed.

It seems certain, however, that there is a very important movement on foot in the vicinity of Ostend. Dispatches tell of fresh and well drilled troops which the Germans are rushing in there. They are evidently centering their strength in that quarter and as that part of the country is not adapted for strong entrenchments it would appear that a big battle will be fought in the open within the next few days. The results of that fight are vital for the enemy certainly cannot afford a big defeat where they have concentrated most of their power.

AUSTRIANS REPULSED—CAN'T CROSS RIVER SAN

(Special to The Daily News—10:30 A. M.)

Petrograd, Oct. 23.—All the efforts of the Austrians to cross the River San, north of Jaroslavl have been repulsed and the Russians are taking the offensive in that region.

London, Oct. 23.—A dispatch from Peking reports that the Allies' warships have captured a German cruiser which escaped from Kiao Chau Bay.

COURTS WENT ON QUITE UNMOVED

Vancouver, Oct. 21.—The unerringness of the law was illustrated this morning at the Court House when the murder of Inspector Hopkinson took place. Hopkinson was to have been a witness in the murder trial of Bela Singh. In the face of the tragedy which had taken place, the work of the Assize Court went on, only interrupted until the city coroner had time to arrive to view the body where it lay in the Assize Court corridor, and the corridor could be reopened.

Mr. Justice Morrison made no reference to the tragedy at the opening of the court, but proceeded to send the bill of indictment in the Bela Singh case to the grand jury. The psychological effect was more impressive than any diatribes could have been. The grand jury after hearing the case outlined in regard to the shooting of Bhag Singh and Bahan Singh in the Sikh Temple retired to the room at the end of the corridor in which Hopkinson was slain and calmly deliberated the evidence against Bela Singh.

It is regarded as probable that the grand jury will before many days consider an indictment against Mewa Singh, and that the man will come up for trial at the assizes now sitting.

GERMANS MAKING NEW ATTACK
BETWEEN NORTH SEA AND OISEALLIES HAVE SUCCESSES IN VICINITY OF METZ AND ENEMY
WILL NEED BIG REINFORCEMENTS TO HOLD THEM IN CHECK.

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.)

Paris, Oct. 23.—The gains made by the Allies in the neighborhood of Metz must, it is thought, draw the attention of the Germans seriously to that quarter, where they are menaced not only from the direction of Verdun but also by the renewed success of the French on the eastern slopes of the Vosges.

The official bulletin says the Germans seem to be undertaking, along the major part of the front, particularly between the North Sea and the Oise a new effort, making use of recently drilled corps.

GERMANS BUILDING LIGHTERS TO CARRY 15,000 TROOPS TO BRITAINTHE SHIPYARDS AT KIEL ARE BUSY ON THIRTY ARMORED

(Special to The Daily News—1:30 P. M.)

elling at a rate of nine miles an hour to proceed to the River Scheldt should events permit the landing of troops on the coast of England.

German Cruiser Has Sunk Several More Britishers.

London, Oct. 23.—The German cruiser Emden has again been sinking British steamers, this time at a point 150 miles southwest of Ceylon, British India, according to a report received by the Admiralty from Colombo, Ceylon. She has sent to the bottom the British steamers Chilkana, Troilus, Benmohr and Clan Grant, and the dredger Ponrabble, bound for Tasmania. The British steamer Exford was captured by the Emden.

The East Indian troops in France are accompanied by herds of goats. These do not include Belgium, however, which seems to have been the goat since the war began.
