

WHOLE FAMILY USES THEM

Fruit-a-lives" Keeps Young And Old In Splendid Health

J. W. HAMMOND Esq.
SCOTLAND, ONT., Aug. 25th, 1913 Fruit-a-lives" are the only pills manufactured, in my way of thinking, by a man who is a doctor, and who works completely, no grating tongue, and one is plenty for any person at a dose. My wife suffered from Constipation. We tried nothing on the calendar without effect, and spent large sums of money until we happened on "Fruita-lives". I cannot say too much in praise of them.
We have used them in the family for at least two years and we would not use anything else as long as we can get Fruit-a-lives".
Their action is mild, and no distress at all. I have recommended them to many other people, and our whole family uses them.
J. W. HAMMOND.
One who has been cured by "Fruita-lives" are proud and happy to tell a friend or ailing friend about these wonderful pills made from fruit juices.
Each box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c.

GLOOMY FORBODINGS OF FUTURE
ECHOED IN AMERICAN PRESS

FEAR ALLIES NOW FIGHTING TOGETHER MAY QUARREL OVER SPOILS AND START A MORE CRUEL WAR THAN THE FIRST.

The consoling thought that the terrible conflict in Europe will at any rate settle old scores and insure peace is now denied us by two experts on such subjects.
One is the editor of The Navy (Washington), who foresees a distant struggle, and the other is a well known French peace advocate, who looks for a nearer combat—in fact, a series of them—immediately after this one.
Whether America can preserve its neutrality through all the turmoil is not stated, but one of these writers warns us to be prepared.
Urban Gohier, who has written an illuminating book about us as "The People of the Twentieth Century," believes that when the diplomats gather at the end of this war to arrange terms of peace, they will find the task impossible. In an article translated for the New York Times he declares that "the international and social question which the present war is going to raise are too numerous, too complex, to be settled beyond appeal and irrevocably by any diplomatic arguments whatsoever." Then will come the fight over the spoils. He writes:
"Remember the two Balkan wars. The first was terrible; the second was still more cruel. The allies who had crushed Turkey rent each other in their struggle to divide the booty.
"After the collapse of the German Empire and the dismemberment of the Austro-Hungarian Empire the booty will be richer, the participants therein more numerous, the difficulties more in-extricable. While the great congress of 1915 or 1916 works for the reorganization of Europe, of Africa, and a part of Asia on new bases, the combatants of the day before will not lay down their arms for good; perhaps they will take them up again with greater fury.
"Within each country formidable disorders will arise. Several millions of men will return home to their hearths with new souls.
Their sufferings and perils will have given them other desires, other ideas, other manner. They will not dread violence as yesterday they dreaded it, and they will not have the same respect for human life; they will have seen death too near by, and will have marched over the corpses of friends or enemies.
"Now they will find, in their respective countries, political life, economic life, social life, all turned topsyturvy. They will expect to regulate it anew; but their ideas will not be in concord and harmony.

probably but the first of a series of tremendous world-wide conflicts that will be fought by the inhabitants of the earth, for national supremacy, until that supremacy is obtained by some single people, or possibly by an amalgamated race, the ingredients of which are just now being thrown into the melting pot." He reminds us that despite civilization, despite religion, despite everything, we now see that "primitive brutal instincts are as strong as ever." And if enlightened Europe suddenly bursts into an orgy of savagery, what can we expect of the black, brown, and yellow millions when they learn to handle the white man's weapons?
As he argues:
"It would be idle to expect that the next fifty, one hundred, or five hundred years would materially change the nature of the human race. In fact, it is much more reasonable to assume that when the scientific knowledge which has been discovered by the white race has not been assimilated by the peoples of Asia and Africa, who have not had the advantages of the culture accompanying that scientific development, but who will be able to use for their own ends the highly developed modern offensive weapons, there will be an attack made by those races upon the white civilization, and if the white race has not by that time deteriorated so as to be unable to offer effectual resistance to their attacks, there will be a series of wars of such tremendous extent that the wars which have been fought previously will appear insignificant.
"In the past, rivers and mountains have formed barriers, so that it was difficult for tribes or alliances of neighboring tribes to wage war beyond their own territories, but the rivers and mountains are no longer insurmountable obstacles. The oceans alone, at the present time, furnish an obstacle to the transportation of large armies; but if the past fifty years is a criterion of what is coming within the next century, the oceans will present no more difficulties to invading forces than did the narrow Tiber to the enemies of Rome at the opening of Roman history.
"When Afro-Eurasia has passed under the domination of the final winner and its now undeveloped peoples have assimilated the war science of the modern world, then will come the test of the New World's strength. May we be prepared!"—Literary Digest.

JACK JOHNSON TO BE BARRED FROM MEXICO
FOR WILLARD CONTEST
El Paso, Texas, Jan. 23.—Because it would increase the war chest of Villa, the Carranza government will oppose the entry into Mexico of Jack Johnson, the American negro prize-fighter, who is booked to meet Jess Willard in Juarez on March 6, according to Andres Garcia, the Carranza consul here. Garcia telegraphed today to the "first chief" that Johnson was a fugitive from justice in the United States, and suggested that he must present recently-issued American passports before he be allowed to pass through any port held by the Carranza forces.
Johnson at present is at Buenos Ayres, Argentina, or on his way north. He naturally would attempt to enter Mexico through the east coast of Tampico or Vera Cruz, both of which are held by the Carranza troops. The trip from some Central American border port would be difficult, as would any entry from the west coast. The latter would require a hard ride over the mountains, which might affect the condition of the negro.

QUEBEC TIDAL FISHERY
CONTROL IN DISPUTE

Ottawa, Jan. 23.—The Dominion Fisheries Department is preparing to assert Federal jurisdiction over the fisheries in all tidal waters in the Province of Quebec, a claim which has been resisted for years by the provincial government. The conflict of jurisdiction may lead to an interesting situation next spring. The announcement was made today by the Federal Fisheries Department that arrangements are being made to administer the fisheries licences, etc., in all the tidal waters of Quebec, covering the St. Lawrence Gulf and River to the limit of the tidal flow west of Quebec city. The Quebec government, on the other hand, asserts its rights to continue to control the fisheries in these waters.

Dominion Contentment Upheld
The Dominion Government maintains that under the British North America Act the Federal power has control not only of the tidal, but also of the non-tidal waters. In the statement issued today by the Fisheries Department, it is noted that in 1912 a reference to the Supreme Court of certain questions affecting the Provincial and Federal fisheries jurisdiction was agreed to with British Columbia. There questions were so framed as to decide the matter in all the other sea-washed provinces. The Supreme Court maintained the contentions of the Federal government, and an appeal to the Privy Council upheld the decision in 1913.

Following the final decision, Quebec was requested to hand back the administration of the tidal waters it has controlled since the Provincial arrangement of 1898, and this it refused to do, urging that the Privy Council decision applied only to British Columbia. Last year the Federal Government proposed a reference to the courts, but this is not favorably received by Quebec.
The Federal government has now decided to force the issue by taking over control of the fisheries in the tidal waters of Quebec, and has so informed the Quebec government and the fishermen interested. The latter have been informed that they must take out a Federal licence before being allowed to fish this year. If the Quebec government also continues to issue licences there is likely to be "a certain liveliness" in the Quebec tidal waters as soon as the fishing season opens.

A NEWSPAPER
for Prince Rupert and Northern B.C.
The Daily News goes into nearly every home in Prince Rupert. It is the popular newspaper of the city because it is clean and reliable. It has all the news of the city, and keeps in touch with events and topics interesting to Northern British Columbia. It treats these subjects with moderate optimism and reliability.
The Daily News is the most valuable paper to advertisers because it is read by the buying public.
It has a bigger circulation than any other paper in the city. It is read by the class of people the advertisers want to talk to.
