Russky and Ivanov

Luckily, in this war he has by his side a first-class strategist in General Russky. Pale and spectacled, this officer belongs to the soldier-professor type. Both he and Gereral Ivanov come from the famous military school at Kiev. Black-bearded and resolute, as the glance of his deep-set eyes suggests, Ivanov is a man of action as well as a man of ideas. In a general way these three leaders may be compared with the triumvirate which won the Franco-Prussian war. General ducer of plans. General Ivanov is the von Roon, the organizer of victory. The Grand Duke is the King of Prussia.
