In the Letter Box

Editor, The Daily News: Sir—In your report of the proceedings at the City Council meeting on Thursday night, you report me as having used the word "connived" in such a way as to infer that I was casting some reflection on the character of Alderman Montgomery and on that of the light superintendent.

My statement was not in any sense an attempt to show that these gentlemen had acted dishonorably, but that the purchase of so much wire looked like a bad business proposition. Thanking you, I am Yours faithfully, WM. BEVERIDGE. Prince Rupert, Feb. 12, 1915.

PRINCE RUPERT ASKS FINANCIAL LEEWAY

(Continued From Page One.) manager of the Bank of Montreal, and the managers of the Royal, B. N. A., and Commerce Banks, the governor of the Bank of England was prevailed upon to renew certificates for $400,000, and the four banks each lent the city $25,000 to pay off the rest. In that case the matter was all arranged by cable, and there would have been no time to secure the approval of the executive: That would not be any safeguard, as the Prince Rupert men suggested, in any case, as the Lieutenant Governor-in-council, having approved the original issue, would not withhold approval of any renewal.

Alderman Morrissey considered that it would be a safeguard for the people, as it would make the council seek to secure the best terms it could, knowing that the government, for the protection of the provincial credit, would not consent to any sacrifice by too long a term or by too high a rate of interest or discount.

Robert Baird, the inspector of municipalities, agreed that Prince Rupert was in a position where it must get some consideration, and the department was willing, but it desired that the term of renewal should not be more than three years. The only way Prince Rupert could get over the situation in which it was placed was either by renewal of the certificates, which was impossible, according to the representatives of the city, by the sale of fifty-year bonds, which was impracticable now, or by the issue of new certificates.

On the motion of Frank J. Mackenzie the committee unanimously endorsed the application and asked the inspector of municipalities to draft a section to cover the case.—Victoria Times, Feb. 9.

HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE MEN TO BE RECRUITED HERE

CAPTAIN CLAYTON IS EXPECTED TO COMMAND THE LOCAL COMPANY—EXPECTED TO JOIN THIRD CONTINGENT AT VICTORIA IN TWO WEEKS.

Instructions have been received by Major McMullin, commanding the 68th Regiment, the local corps, to enlist 125 men for service overseas as part of the third contingent. It is expected the local contingent will go out under the command of Captain W. B. Clayton, the senior officer of the regiment volunteering for service abroad.

The contingent to be raised will be composed of 125 men, to be recruited here and as far east as Prince George. Major McMullin is now considering the number to be allotted to each place along the line of the G. T. P. There will be three commissioned officers from here. Under the new system the number of men and officers from Prince Rupert will comprise a half battalion.

In order to ascertain just how many are available here, Major McMullin has ordered a parade this afternoon at 2:30 at the Exhibition Building of all local militia members who wish to volunteer for service. The parade will be in civilian clothes. Those so volunteering will be inspected by Dr. Tremayne, the officer charged with the duty of examining the local applicants. All who wish to join in Prince Rupert should be present this afternoon to hand in their names.

At Prince George inspection of the volunteers will be made by Dr. Richardson, of that city. There are reported to be a good number of men available there, and many have already been drilled for service. There are a number at different points along the line of the G. T. P. between here and Prince George.

It is the expectation that the members who pass the medical inspection will leave here in about two weeks for the South to train. They will form a part of the regiment under Colonel Holmes and will get their preliminary training in Victoria. It is anticipated that there will be no difficulty in securing sufficient men to fill the half company in a very short time.

ENJOYABLE PARTY— I. O. D. E. ENTERTAIN

A most enjoyable bridge party was given by the Queen Mary Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire. Mr. and Mrs. Mobley very kindly lent their charming and most comfortable home for the occasion, and with Mrs. P. I. Palmer, the convener, received the guests. All the Daughters of the Queen Mary Chapter were invited, together with a gentleman friend, husband, brother, or fiancé. About one hundred people were present, and the large and spacious rooms set off to perfection some of the very handsome gowns that were worn. The tally cards and supper cloth, decorated with crimson hearts and winged cupids, reminded one that St. Valentine's Anniversary is close at hand and that Cupid's quiver will have many opportunities of demonstrating the blind boy's marksmanship during the coming season.

A most unique and acceptable prize was awarded to Miss Ellett, who topped the scores—a half ton of coal kindly presented by Mr. H. B. Rochester.

Among the guests who took advantage of the opportunity to help the Daughters provide funds for their many activities were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Patmore, A. E. Wright, Parkin, Hunter, Pattullo, Tippens, Naden, H. H. D. Hemmell, F. R. C. Brown, Tite, Sinclair, W. H. W. Murray, H. Dunn, Morrison, and Dr. and Mrs. Cade.

Mesdames: Reddie, DeGex, McNeil, Ward, Dawson, Harris, McMordie, Roberson, Scott. Misses: Ellett, Du Vernet, Carss, Beckwith, Stewart, Ray, Phelan.

Messrs.: H. P. Wilson, C. P. H. Newcombe, Boldrick, C. C. Purdie, L. Holtby, J. B. Doig, G. Tooker, H. Tooker, A. H. Tomlinson, H. F. McLeod, W. E. Burritt, R. A. McGee, G. W. Nickerson, Lieutenant Christie, A. C. Garde, A. Carss, J. Howatt, Barnjum, F. Turnan, J. F. Pooler, Jardine.

Mrs. Palmer is to be congratulated on the able manner in which she, assisted by Mrs. Naden, organized and carried out a delightful entertainment.
