GERMANY BEGINS TO FEEL THE FINAL SQUEEZE

TWO MORE BRITISH SHIPS TORPEDOED—MORE KOMAGATA MARU TROUBLE IN VANCOUVER

BAD BLOOD STILL AT WORK STARTED BY KOMAGATA MARU

ENDS OF HINDU WHO ASSISTED AUTHORITIES WERE ATTACKED LAST NIGHT IN VANCOUVER—ONE MAN KILLED AND TWO INJURED BEFORE ASSAILANT WAS ARRESTED.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Vancouver, B. C., March 19.—The bad blood which broke out in the colony last night. As a result of the Komagata Maru incident, Rattan Singh was murdered, and two other men were shot in the street. The trouble started at 1829 Granville Street, where a Hindu was arrested on a charge of murder. The injured men are friends of the arrested man, and the man who assisted the authorities at the time of the Komagata Maru incident.

HOW BRITONS HONOR A FOE—FUNERAL OF THE BLUCHER'S CAPTAIN.
The funeral of Captain Carl Erdmann, commander of the German cruiser Blucher, sunk in the famous North Sea battle, was celebrated with full military honors at Edinburgh. The procession started from the castle, with a German flag draping the gun carriage.

ALLIED ARMIES BEGINNING TO SQUEEZE ALL GERMAN FLANKS

HINDENBURG FAILS TO REACH WARSAW—RUSSAINS AGAIN IN EAST PRUSSIA—WITH HEAVY WESTERN PRESSURE GERMANS CANNOT MOVE.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, March 19.—The failure of Von Hindenburg's attempts to reach Warsaw and the reappearance of the Russians on the East Prussian frontier at Tilsit, together with the allied offensive in the west, it is declared by experts, will tie up the Germans so they dare not shift a force in either the east or the west. The next German move is a mystery, though it is expected to be against the British front. The German government is enrolling women to take the place of men willing to go to the front. The Austrians have been reinforced, and have resumed a strong offensive in Bukovina.

REPORTS THAT FRENCH SHIP SANK

(Special to The Daily News.)
Constantinople, March 19.—It is reported here that the French battleship Bouvet was sunk yesterday in the Dardanelles. She was built in 1893, carried a crew of 1,200 and was of 12,000 tons. No confirmation.

WAKE UP!

Imagine yourself in the place of that Montreal banker who had to puzzle his brains out for six weeks in a vain attempt to explain a simple problem in arithmetic to a couple of "financiers" from Prince Rupert and then after having put everything in writing for them, to have received a wire asking him what he really meant. Wouldn't you get the impression that Prince Rupert was a little Siwash village away in the woods and still uninvaded by the whites? How long will it be before Prince Rupert will wake up and elect men to office whose very presence would inspire confidence in the city and who would know whether they were paying a commission of $27,000 or $81,000? It costs money to have "dough-heads" in charge of our affairs.

SHOT BY HIS OWN GUN AFTER MAKING ARREST

(Special to The Daily News.)
Vancouver, March 19.—Charles Painter, a night watchman on the B. C. E. Railway, was shot through the body at 3 a. m. today by an unknown Italian. He had arrested the man, who was stealing copper from the tracks at Oak Street, and had handcuffs on him; when the Italian struck him with his loose cuff and then drew Painter's gun and shot him.

THE PRINCE RUPERT PILGRIMS' PROGRESS

Being a More or Less Truthful Account of the Great Journey of Sam and Dan to the Far East.

(Contributed.)
Behold, it came to pass, that, during the first year of the great war, Sam, the chief citizen of the City of the Great Warrior, who was called Rupert, accompanied by his keeper of the shekels, Dan, proceeded on a hazardous journey to the far eastern country. They tarried by the way at the City of the Great Queen, and there they took counsel with Sir Richard of the Big Mitt. The pilgrims discussed the affairs of their city with Sir Richard, explaining how the city was plentifully supplied with water, power, and hot-air, but that there was a great scarcity of shekels. They told him of their intention to journey into the Far East to interview some of the wise men regarding the borrowing of shekels, and Sir Richard saw that it was good, and they departed with his blessing.

MILAN PEOPLE SHOUT FOR WAR

Rome, March 19.—A statement made here on good authority states that within a fortnight Italy's attitude will be changed. An imposing popular demonstration urging intervention was held yesterday in Milan. Huge crowds gathered in the cathedral square singing patriotic hymns and shouting "Down with Austria!" The troops and police were powerless to disperse the crowd. A few Socialists, who shouted "Long Live Neutrality," narrowly escaped lynching.

TWO FISHERMEN WERE LOST ON BANKS

The fishing boat Skugaidd, of the Cold Storage Company, with Captain Selig in command, had the misfortune of losing two of its men in the recent trip to the fishing banks.

The Skugaidd arrived back yesterday afternoon with its flag at half mast and it was soon learned what the trouble was.

Two of their men, J. Iverson and M. C. Chatwind were fishing in one of the dories, when a squall came up and capsized the boat. As soon as Captain Selig saw the squall he proceeded to the assistance of the boat, but before he got there it had gone over and there was no sign of the men. He cruised around for some time, expecting that the men might have got entangled in the tackling, but was doomed to disappointment.

The Skugaidd went out on Sunday and the accident occurred on Monday about three miles east of Danger Rocks, in Hecate Strait. Both of the men were experienced fishermen. Iverson was a Norwegian and Chatwind a Nova Scotian. This accident is the first that has happened among the fishermen from Prince Rupert.

The Skugaidd brought in about 40,000 pounds of fish.

Redding Cal., March 18.—Mt. Lassen's eightieth eruption was observed from here early yesterday. The crater emitted dense black smoke and some ashes for an hour. The last previous eruption was observed February 12.

JAPANESE PRESS THE CHINESE

Yokohama, via, Tokio, March 19.—The despatch of Japanese garrison troops to Manchuria and Northern China, which has been confirmed, has centered the attention of the country upon the negotiations for concessions from China. The newspapers express the belief that these military movements are in preparation for eventualities in case China declines to accede to Japan's demands. It is their opinion that the old garrisons will remain until the negotiations are concluded satisfactorily.

SPAIN SATISFIED WITH CARRANZA EXPLANATION

Madrid, March 19.—(Via Paris)—The Spanish government has published a note saying it has accepted in principle explanations offered by General Carranza concerning the expulsion from Mexico City of the Spanish minister, Jose Caro.

General Carranza, the note said, requested Spain to send to his capital a confidential agent to replace Caro, who, he says, "was expelled because of the excitement and passions of the populace and the fear of disagreeable consequences if he remained."

Manuel Walls Merino, who was appointed minister to Mexico some time ago, but never presented his credentials, probably will be named as confidential agent.

Indemnity to Spanish subjects for their losses resulting from the revolution is promised by Carranza, the note says, when peace is established.

The semi-official press characterizes as dangerous delusions "the idea of the Chinese that Japan is not determined to insist on its demands and that they lack the support of the people."

GIRL DROPS 1,400 FEET.

San Diego, March 19.—Brig. Gen. George P. Scriven, chief of the aeronautical corps of the United States, yesterday witnessed his first demonstration of an aerial life preserver. Leaping out of an aeroplane from an altitude of 1,400 feet, the 18-year-old daughter of Charles Broadwick, inventor of the apparatus, made a safe landing.
