

GOING MAD FROM THE TERRIFIC PAIN

Prominent Merchant Thinks His Life Was Saved By "Fruit-a-tives".

DRYSDALE, ONT., JUN 15th, 1913.

"I am a general storekeeper at the above address, and on account of the great good I have experienced from using 'Fruit-a-tives', I recommend them to my customers. They were a great boon to me, I can tell you, for about two years ago, I was laid up in bed with vomiting and a terrific pain at the base of my skull. The pain nearly drove me mad. Doctors feared it would turn to inflammation of the brain, but I took 'Fruit-a-tives'. I have steadily until I was cured. I have gained fifteen pounds since taking 'Fruit-a-tives', and I verily believe they saved me from a disastrous illness".

BRITISH WAR OFFICE FEARS CANADIAN GRAFT

Ottawa, April 19.—Revelations of war purchases of boots, bandages, binoculars, and bad horses apparently have crossed the Atlantic. It looks as if the British Government had begun to sit up and take notice.

Soon after the opening of the war the British Government entrusted the Canadian Government with the purchasing of some war supplies in Canada for the use of the British and the Allies' forces. The British Government was to pay the bills. It is understood that within the last few days the War Office or the British Government has cancelled the buying commissions, which it gave to the Canadian Government. It is understood that this does not mean an end to the purchase of supplies in Canada by the British Government, but the War Office buyers are on their way to Canada and the United States, and that hereafter the British Government will deal direct with the producers and manufacturers on this continent without the intervention of Ottawa.

BLACKEST CRIME IN HISTORY OF CANADA

Toronto, April 16.—Read the recent sworn evidence about the Government's purchase of horses for Canadian soldiers at the battle-front. Every Canadian with good blood in his veins should read that sickening story of crookedness and criminality, told with a cynicism that itself was almost a crime. There is no use waxing wrathly over the gross offences of the men who sold the horses. Restitution and punishment could scarcely miss them in any country where Christianity is not a mockery and justice a misnomer. The blackest crime is theirs who bought old and spavined horses at exorbitant prices, and certified them for service in the Canadian army in this time of war.

What shall be said of the responsible member of Parliament who permitted such crimes in his own constituency? What shall be said of the Minister of Militia who commissioned the crookedness that yielded these crimes? What shall be said of the Government that accepted responsibility in Parliament for the conduct of this Minister of Militia? What shall be said of the Prime Minister who chose such Ministers and still keeps them in the Government?

But read the evidence, and, in the light of the waste of Canada's war money and the peril to Canadian soldiers on the field of battle, judge of its crookedness and its criminality.—Toronto Globe.
