WOMAN'S BEST MEDICINE

Mrs. Kelly Advises all Women to Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., AUG. 26th. 1913.

"I can highly recommend "Fruit-a-tives" because they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking "Fruit-a-tives" for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollar's worth, but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found only pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that some other women may start taking "Fruit-a-tives" after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case".

MRS. W. N. KELLY

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

DEMANDS ACTION ON DRINK ISSUE

London, April 22.—The Chronicle urges the government to more action and less talk over the drink question.

"It is seven weeks since Mr. Lloyd George's solemn Bangor warning and nothing has yet been done beyond the King's lead," The Chronicle says. 'With the long delay in taking the smallest steps, the whole case is in danger of looking ridiculous. Our inaction, in the face of this exaggerated evil unjustly suggests that we are nervelessly incapable of pursuing a remedy."

The Times and Mail announce that the government has decided against a general State purchase of breweries, distilleries and public-houses, but will propose a stricter control of public-houses and partial or complete prohibition of the sale of spirits, particularly whiskey, the encouragement of light beers, the repression of stronger and doctored beers and heavier taxation on wine.

For a comfortable room, come to the St. Elmo Hotel, 836 Second Avenue, near Eighth Street. Newly opened. Steam heat and hot and cold water in every room. Free baths. Rates reasonable.

THE WAR STAMPS MUST FOR DICK McBRIDE'S TWO SUBMARINES

acting as agent, Powell received a profit of 31 1-4 per cent, whereas, the auditor thought 5 per cent was quite a high enough commission. Care in this item alone would have made needless $2,822.40 worth of Mr. White's new stamps.

But this was not all. On November 26 the Auditor wrote that $18,613 had been paid for medical supplies received from Powell, commenting, "These goods could have been purchased for 40 to 60 per cent cheaper from the regular wholesale trade, and think that an order amounting to over $18,000 should not be paid at retail prices." Why not? If the government was particular about saving 40 to 60 per cent, what excuse would there be for Mr. White's stamp taxes?

The bandages bought from Powell for use, presumably, of wounded soldiers, will illustrate the necessity of Mr. White's taxes. For one kind Powell paid (the Auditor General writes) $8 per gross, and charged $12. Stamps for the difference, $4 worth. For some white flannel bandages, Powell paid $4.40 a gross. Stamps to bring it up to his selling price, $3.60. Adhesive plaster that cost him 52 and 72 cents, he charged 72 cents and $1 for. By some slip he invoiced rubber drainage tubes at $3.20, just what he paid for them. Abandoning the 5 per cent commission the Auditor General thought he was entitled to, and providing no opportunity to the public to buy stamps to make up wastage. Such mistakes do not occur often.

The story of the connection between motor trucks and the war taxes is not ready to be told in full as yet, there is too much of it. What is known is that at the outset every business rule was disregarded, and the country paid whatever bills came in. Later, when more trucks had to be bought, and competition forced itself upon the government's notice, it was discovered that hundreds of dollars too much had been paid for every truck. Suppose it was $500 a truck, an under-estimate. There, at once, on every car, are fifty thousand of Mr. White's stamps accounted for. Why can't people pay for them and accept the annoyance of them, and feel virtuously patriotic in the knowledge that somebody must have got the money that was wasted.

And the Sham Shoes! The ones that wore through, the soldier said, when he "wiggled his big toe!" The shoes the soldiers in Halifax used to wrap clothes around when they went walking! The shoes whose soles the boys had to replace with shingles! They had to be paid for, and replaced with others sometimes as bad, which also had to be paid for. Two hundred thousand pairs of canvas "hospital shoes" had to be paid for. And because all this money was wasted, Mr. White had to impose some special taxes to remind people that they are at war. They had not had sufficient reminder of that in the state of their fortunes already.

The people of Canada rightly expected to bear special burdens of taxation in consequence of the war, and the Borden government did not disappoint them in that. But they had the right also to expect that a government which levied such taxes would abstain from wasting, in the manner of which the foregoing offers a sample, possibly the whole of what this special taxation will take from people who can ill afford it.

MORE JUICY STEAKS.

George Milner has again entered the restaurant business. This time he has formed a partnership with Joe Raatz, of the Empress Cafe.

Mr. Milner is one of the oldest residents of the city and old-timers will remember him as the partner of Frank Bowness in the Exchange Grill, where they used to turn out those juicy steaks for the pioneers. George says he still knows the knack of making good steaks and invites all his old friends to come in and give him a trial. Mr. Milner's ability is by no means confined to steaks as he is an all round caterer and chef of ability.
