Question-Has ex-Ald. Morris- contract. sey submitted an expense account for his trip to Montreal to the Council?

Answer-No.

Q .- If so, what is the amount? No answer.

Q .- If not, does the law require an account to be submitted to the Council? A .- The city solicitor's opinion, backed by the auditor, is that no law requires a detailed statement, and should be judged by considering a fair amount per

Q.-What is the amount he withdrew from the bank in the city's credit?

A.—$850.

Q .-- How much does he refund f that amount?

A.—$30.

Q .- Did the Mayor take Alderman Morrissey with him to Montreal, and is he responsible for his expenses?

A .- The Council sanctioned the going of ex-Alderman Morrissey; therefore, the Mayor is not responsible for ex-Alderman Morrissey's expenses.

Q .- Does the Mayor's report cover the expenses of both himself and ex-Alderman Morrissey?

A .- The Mayor reported his own expenses only.

Q .- How much money did the city deposit re appeal of Ritchie sewer case?

A.--$388.65.

Q .- Has this money been returned to the city?

Q.—Have any steps been taken to collect by the city?

A.—Yes.

Q .- If not, why has the matter been neglected?

A .- The matter has continualbeen followed up with Mr. Ritchie and Mr. Patmore, so far without results. The city solicitor is nevertheless still demanding the money.

Aldermen Montgomery, Mait. land, Nicol and Casey expressed the opinion that the work should be done by day labor.

Mr. Hull said that the city solicitor's reason for stipulating on a contract clause was in order to hinder a bunch of political heelers getting on the job and runing the cost away up.

In reply to questions regarding the fair wage clause in government contracts, Mr. Hull stated 2.00 that 45 cents per hour was the wage for laborers.

Alderman Kerr, seconded by Alderman Montgomery, moved that the matter be further discussed at a special meeting on 2.00 Thursday.

Alderman Beveridge, seconded 3.75 by Alderman Dybhavn, moved an amendment that the government! 2.35 proposal be accepted and that the 2.90 department be asked to stipulate 1.00 that the contract be let to local 5.00 contractors, who would employ local labor at a fair local rate of
