W P HINTON IS POPULAR OFFICIAL

Mr. H. P. Hinton, general passenger agent of the G. T. P., accompanied by his assistant, Mr. Duperow, left this morning for the east after making full arrangements for the tri-weekly service on trains and steamships to this port, which will start in June.

Yesterday Mr. Hinton and party made a friendly call at the office of the News, and expressed themselves as being pleased to be able to announce the new schedule, which they believed would assist the development of Prince Rupert considerably.

It was also suggested that arrangements should be made locally to provide suitable entertainment for the tourists which they expect to pass through the city. Launch trips should be available and at prices that would be popular, for only in this way could tourists be induced to say a good word for the city.

Mr. Hinton is probably one of the most popular men in the service of the G. T. P. His easy manners and friendly disposition win friends for the road wherever he goes.

"DOUGH AND DYNAMITE" AT THE WESTHOLME TONIGHT

"Dough and Dynamite" drew a crowded house at the Westholme Theatre last night and will no doubt do the same tonight, for a better pleased audience than that of last night would be impossible to find.

Chas Chaplin wins fresh laurels in this screamingly funny comedy and his comical antics keep the house in constant roars of laughter. The balance of the programme is also excellent, especially the Scenic, showing the wonderful Des Schutes Canyon in Oregon and winter sports in the Swiss Alps.

Next Monday and Tuesday there will be another exceptionally fine bill headed by the great two-reel feature, "Playing With Fire."

This story is intensely interesting and very true to life. A wife innocently, but foolishly permits one of her husband's friends to pay her more attention than reason or propriety permits and suffers the terrible consequences. The story points a healthy and important moral.

On Wednesday and Thursday of next week another very fine five-reel Paramount Feature will be shown. The title is "Such a Little Queen" and little Mary Pickford the star. This is one of the very best of the world-famous Paramount series and should prove a great attraction.
