

NEURALGIA SETTLED IN HER LUNGS

No Relief From The Pain Until She Took "Fruit-a-lives"

CAMPBELLVILLE, ONT., MAY 5th, 1913.

"I cannot speak too highly of 'Fruit-a-lives'. For over thirty years, I have suffered from chronic Neuralgia and Constipation, experiencing untold agony. The Neuralgia settled in my lungs and I took bottles of medicine without relief. The doctor told me I would not get better but 'Fruit-a-lives' proved that the doctor was wrong by giving me quick relief and finally and completely curing me.

"I would not have my present health if it were not for 'Fruit-a-lives' and am glad of this opportunity of giving you this letter about such a splendid remedy as 'Fruit-a-lives'."

CUNARD LEAVES GLASGOW.

New York, May 12.—The an- nouncement was made Monday at the Cunard offices that the An- chor liner Tuscany, with 311 pas- sengers, sailed from Glasgow on Saturday, and from Liverpool Sunday for New York. This is the first passenger steamer identified with the Cunard Line to sail from the British Isles for the United States since the sinking of the Lusitania.

DECOY PERISCOPES USED BY GERMANS

Such things exist as decoy periscopes—short lengths of pipe held upright on a float and look- ing exactly like the real periscope. The submarine sets them adrift for you to find—sometimes scat- ters several of them.

When one is sighted you can- not stop to consider whether the little object dancing on the sea half a mile or so distant does or does not mean 250 pounds of high explosive coming straight at you. Maybe you will see an aeroplane maneuvering over it in such a way that carries conviction that it does. You don't dare to take any chances, and so you train all the guns at it.

Then the real submarine slinks up on the other side of the ship, and with the swift rush of its tor- pedo the latest of sea tragedies comes to an end.—Ex.

WITHOUT FIRING A SHOT.

Geneva, May 12.—The Tribune de Geneva publishes statistics to the effect that a total of 82,000 officers and men of the Austria-Hungarian army have surren- dered to the Russians and to the Ser- ans since the beginning of hos- tilities without firing a shot. The newspaper declares that all of these men were fully equipped.

Minds are not conquered by arms, but by love and generosity.

Coughing scatters germs —Stop it

Coughing increases the irritation of the already in- flamed mucous membranes and is moreover apt to carry disease to others.

Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil promptly stops coughing, and soon, thanks to its tonic properties, effects a permanent cure.

The wonderful popularity of Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil is especially due to its great value as a permanent lung and bron- chial healer.

Sold everywhere, 35c large bottles.
