(Special to The Daily News.)
Bucharest, May 13.—On the frontier of the Austrian province of Bukowina, the Cossacks have had a brilliant success over the German infantry.

The Austrians dislodged the Austrians three lines of trenches and 20,000 prisoners, a battery of machine-guns, and searchlights and searchlights.

R. I. B. WARTON AMONG THE KILLED

It appears to be only too true that the R. I. Warton, mentioned amongst the killed in the recent fighting in Belgium, is R. I. B. Warton, the late law partner of W. E. Fisher, of this city.

Early in the war, Mr. Warton left for Vancouver, where he joined the First Canadian Engineers. Mr. Warton was about 34 years of age and a native of England. He came to Canada some years ago, practising law in Atlin in the early days of that mining camp, and later continued his career in Vancouver in the law office of Charles Hibbert Tupper. He came to Prince Rupert in the early days and entered into partnership with Mr. Fisher.

BRIDAL COUPLE HAVE BIG SEND-OFF

The local Scandinavians entertained Ole Evindsen and his bride in the Scandinavian rooms last night.

SEAL COVE LADIES' SUCCESSFUL DAY

Despite the financial depression, St. Peter's Church had a most successful sale yesterday, the concluding effort of the Ladies' Aid for this season. Proceedings commenced with the singing of the National Anthem at 3:15, soon after which Mrs. Rix in a few well chosen words complimented the ladies upon their prettily decorated stalls, and declared the sale open. The following were the stall holders, and proceeds:

- Fancy Work Stall—Mrs. T. Johnson and Mrs. R. Blance, $42.75.
- Work Stall—Mrs. Candow and Mrs. Jedin, $33.50.
- Refreshments—Mrs. C. H. Freeman and Mrs. Hills, $16.45.
- Candy Stall and Cake Competition—Mrs. Wrightall, $16.05.
- Home Produce Stall—Mrs. Morehouse, $13.60.
- Weighing Machine and Fish Pond—Miss Morrissey, $9.50.

A very pleasant concert, commencing at 8:30, filled the church, and swelled the receipts for the day, which are for the Church Building Fund, to over $150. The program follows:

- Song....."M'Gushea Machree" Miss Freeman.
- Song .. "The Trumpeters" Mr. E. V. Ling.
- Violin Selection..... Mr. D. Scheinmann.
- Song....."O Song Divine" Mrs. R. Blance.
- Song....."The Bugler" Mr. Clapperton.
- Chairman's Remarks— Rev. Canon Rix.
- Song....."The Promise" Miss Freeman.
- Song....."Land of Hope and Glory" Mr. E. V. Ling.
- Violin Selection.....Melody in F Mr. D. Scheinmann.
- Song....."The Skipper" Mr. Clapperton.

The accompanist for the evening was Mrs. A. Tattersall, who was also largely responsible for the program.

Before the conclusion of the evening, Rev. W. S. A. Larter, of St. Peter's, expressed the thanks of the church to all who had in any way contributed towards the enjoyment and success of the day, especially mentioning the faithful work of the officers and members

ALLIES HAVE SCORED BRILLIANT SUCCESSES

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, May 13.—(Official)—The Allies have scored brilliant successes to the north of Arras. They have captured the village and forest of Carency, killing hundreds by the bayonet and taking 1,050 prisoners, including 50 officers and a colonel commandant of Chasseurs. In the forest of Le Pretre they also took a new line of German trenches.

ANOTHER PRINCE RUPERT MAN KILLED

It is reported that Leslie Hill, who left this city for the front in the early stages of the war, has been killed.

Mr. Hill was formerly employed at the cold storage.

PRICE OF COPPER.

The price of copper continues to advance because of the heavy demand for war requirements. Electrolytic is quoted at 19 cents per pound and the best grades of Lake at 22 1-2 cents per pound.—Dun's Report.

CLOTH STEALING.

Before Judge Young this morning, McLaren, pleaded guilty to stealing a quantity of cloth from Mr. Levi, a local tailor. The prisoner pleaded that he committed the theft while under the influence of liquor. He was sentenced to six months at the Oakalla farm.

of the Ladies' Aid throughout the months of preparation.

Whilst Canon Rix suddenly stepped into a position not new to him—that of chairman—Mr. A. H. Tomlinson was seen in an entirely new role—that of auctioneer.
