THE HONORABLE BOB, BORDEN'S OFFICIAL "GOAT"

 Senate. The Senate made the votes-for-soldiers bill "unworkable." Quite true. The votes-for-soldiers bill as amended by the Senate cannot be worked the way the Honorable Bob had in mind. If the soldiers get a chance of voting the election should be an honest one. As far as it can the Senate has cut out any sleight-of-hand work with the ballots. To that extent the bill is "unworkable." The Senate was a great disappointment to Bob last session. He figured that the Red Chamber would throw the votes-for-soldiers bill out and give him and his friends a chance to wave the old flag. Instead of that the brave old Senate, which is subtle as it is brave, got together and made the bill as nearly perfect as possible. The Senate is a great obstacle to coarse work in the Lower House and it's Bob that knows it. Hence these tears. The real trouble with the opposition as Bob sees it, is its unbending patriotism. There's the rub. Bob's speech at Montreal sounds very much like the burglar blaming the plumber for leaving the window open.

Ottawa politicians are not inclined to censure Bob for the poor case he puts up. It is not his fault that it isn't a better one. Besides, nothing is too flimsy to serve as a casus belli, as the war in Europe has already proved. A more skilled dialectician might have done more with it, but Bob did his best, which is as much as any man can do. He was simply playing his role as the other cabinet ministers will play theirs when the election campaign begins.

COL. C. H. ROGERS
 Who has cabled to his wife in Toronto that he is safe and now commands the Fourth Battalion. His cousin, Heber Rogers, of Peterboro, Ont., was killed.

For instance, Premier Borden will disclaim what Bob Rogers says and do it afterwards. If there is any noble work like kicking Garland out of the party Premier Borden will be there with copper-toed boots and will kick so hard that the victim will bounce back as Garland has done already. For the rest Premier Borden will be the heavy father and will speak on a lofty, moral plane with an eye to his page in history.

The Honorable W. T. White will double up in his two favorite parts—the Wizard of Finance who plucks gold out of the air and the Tired Atlas who complains bitterly of the burdens laid on the government by the C. N. R., not, of course, including himself. Sir George Foster is the mellow cynic who says "a plague on both your houses," but sticks to the one that happens to be on top.

Major General Sam Hughes will be the plain, blunt man who loves his friends and sees that any patriot who went to school with him gets 10 per cent off the top.

Doctor Reid will be Bob's right bower and the Hon. Frank Cochrane his left, neither of them whirlwind speakers but both Napoleons with Ontario in the hollow of their hands.

And so on through the list. All will appear in their favorite roles but the Honorable Bob, as the villain in the play, will get most of the cat-calls.

Coughing scatters germs — Stop it

Coughing increases the irritation of the already inflamed mucous membranes and is moreover apt to carry disease to others. Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil promptly stops coughing, and soon, thanks to its tonic properties, effects a permanent cure.

The wonderful popularity of Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil is specially due to its great value as a permanent lung and bronchial healer. Sold everywhere, 35c large bottles.
