

THE ONLY CURE FOR CONSTIPATION

Is "Fruit-a-lives"—That Wonderful Remedy Made From Fruit Juices.

AVON, ONT., MAY 14th, 1913.

"I have used "Fruit-a-lives" for indigestion and Constipation with most excellent results, and they continue to be my only medicine. When I first started about six years ago to use it, I took four at a dose but gradually reduced the dose to one tablet at night. Before taking "Fruit-a-lives", I took salts and other pills but the treatment was too harsh. I thought I might as well suffer from the illness as from these treatments. Finally, I saw "Fruit-a-lives" advertised with a letter in which some one recommended them very highly, so I tried them, and I have no hesitation in recommending them."

HOWARD ODLUM REPORTED SAFE

A letter received by Prof. Odium from his son Major Odium, contained the good news that Major Odium's cousin, Private Howard Odium, who had been reported killed at the battle of Langermark, had turned up safe and unwounded. The letter received was written on April 29. On April 26 Major Odium had written that Private Odium had been killed, but in this he was mistaken. Corporal Joseph Odium, Major Odium's brother, was killed while bringing up ammunition. He had gone to the assistance of a wounded comrade, when a shell exploded beside him, snuffing out his life.—Vancouver Province.

HOW THE CANADIANS SAVED THE SITUATION

The London Daily Mail refers to the recapturing by the Canadians of the four lost guns as follows:

"The first rush of the Germans with the aid of their poisonous gases enabled them to penetrate deeply into the allied position. It is now definitely known that they took four of the British heavy guns, which are normally stationed anything from two to four miles behind the advanced line. The guns, indeed, were recaptured by a deed of the Canadian troops which will thrill the heart of the Motherland with love and pride. The Canadians advanced with magnificent steadiness—though they are new troops and have only recently received their baptism of fire—facing grievous losses, but they retook the guns and 'saved the situation' for the time being. No words can express the gratitude of the British nation to the great Dominion for this valor of her sons. In the day of battle and sudden death they have been weighed in the balance and not found wanting side by side with the paladins of our regular army."

You Should Worry If

it were difficult to find a safe and reliable remedy for the ailments due to irregular or defective action of the stomach, liver or bowels. These ailments are likely to attack anyone; likely, too, to lead to worse sickness if not relieved.

Beecham's Pills

are famous the world over, for their power to correct these troubles certainly and safely. They cleanse the system, purify the blood and act as a general tonic upon body, brain and nerves. Indigestion, biliousness, constipation might, indeed, cause you prolonged suffering and expose you to danger if Beecham's Pills

Were Not On Hand

Prepared only by Thomas Beecham, St. Helens, Lancashire, England.
Sold everywhere in Canada and U. S. America. In boxes, 2-3 cents.
