HAZELTON MURDER TRIAL AT ASSIZES

At the sitting of Assizes, which opens here on June 16, John May, the Hazelton Indian charged with the murder of Bert Taylor, will face his second trial.

May was found guilty at the last trial but the Court of Appeal ordered a new trial on representations made by his counsel.

G. T. P. WATER SUPPLY.

The City Council heard the City Clerk's report on the question of the supplying of water to the G. T. P. last night.

The G. T. P. requested that, in the event of the city supplying water to any other company at a lower rate than is given to them, they should be granted a reduction to the same level.

The city clerk stated that Superintendent Mehan insisted that this clause be inserted in their agreement.

On the motion of Alderman Kerr, seconded by Alderman Montgomery, this was agreed to.

BARBERS' PETITION.

At the City Council last night a petition, signed by ten of the twelve barbers in town, was read, asking that a bylaw covering their hours be framed, under the Shops Regulation Amendment Act.

They requested that barber shops be kept open from 8 a. m. until 7 p. m. on week days and from 8 a. m. until 10:30 p. m. on Saturdays and days preceding a holiday.

Two of the barbers who had signed the petition presented notice of withdrawal, as they had signed the petition on the understanding that they keep open until 8 p. m.

The city clerk reported that the petition did not carry the requisite number of signatures and suggested that the barbers draw up a new petition in proper order and present it at the next Council meeting.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT REBATE.

At the City Council last night the city treasurer's report as to the question of a rebate on local improvement taxes to residents on Tenth Avenue and Conrad Street was presented, along with its approval by the city solicitor.

The report stated that no rebate could be made until the arrears of taxes had been met and the amount paid out of the general fund under this bylaw had been remitted. This could not be before 1916, when the last payments fall due.

Alderman Montgomery objected to this procedure as being unjust to those who had paid up.

The report was approved by the Council, Alderman Montgomery dissenting.

PREMIER HOTEL RENT.

The City Council last night heard the city solicitor's report regarding the city's liability for the rent of the old Premier Hotel during its occupancy by the Fusiliers.

The solicitor held that the city is in no way responsible for the rent of the building. He pointed out that the arrangement was carried out on behalf of the Militia Department, and that there was no agreement entered into between the city and the hotel proprietors.
