Mrs. Kelly Advises all Women to Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., AUG. 26th. 1913. "I can highly recommend "Fruit-aives" because they did me an awful ot of good and I cannot speak too ighly about them. About four years go, I commenced taking "Fruit-aives" for a general break-down and ought a good many dollar's worth, out it was money well spent because hey did all that you claim for them. with other laxatives, that I found only leasure, as well as health, in taking hem. They seemed to me to be articularly suited to women, on ecount of their mild and gentle action, nd I trust that some other women ay start taking "Fruit-a-tives" after eading my letter, and if they do, I am stissed the results will be the same in my own case".

MRS. W. N. KELLY
