HEATED DISCUSSION OVER RETRENCHMENT PROPOSALS

ENTHUSIASTIC AUDIENCE AT THE COUNCIL MEETING LAST NIGHT—REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE IS ADOPTED—CUT WILL SAVE THE CITY $7,860 PER ANNUM.

When the question of salary reductions came up at the Council meeting last night, there was a large and enthusiastic audience, many of whom appeared to enjoy the proceedings just as heartily as they did the ball game. An attempt was made to side-track the proposals put forward by Alderman Montgomery and Maitland last Monday, and to consider a new proposition brought forward by the Finance Committee. The motion of Alderman Kerr, former proposals were considered. Several of the clauses brought out heated discussions, in view of the Finance Committee's report, only two points were carried: the recommendation to the Police Commissioners that the police staff be reduced, and the suggestion that the assistant city engineer be suspended. The large audience enjoyed the argument thoroughly, cheering Aldermen Montgomery and Maitland repeatedly.

The report of the Finance Committee was then proceeded with. It proposed the cutting off of the assistant city engineer, the city clerk's stenographer, and the following salary reductions: city engineer, from $300 to $200 per month; city clerk, $180 to $150; water foreman, $150 to $130; city purchasing agent, $140 to $125, and a recommendation to the Police Commissioners to cut off two patrolmen. It also included the appointment of the Mayor and Aldermen Edge, Dybhavn and Casey to enquire into the possibility of reductions in the light and telephone departments.

In the discussion which followed, the members expressed regret that it was found necessary to dispense with the services of Mr. Edmonds, the clerk's stenographer, as he was so capable, but it was felt that a young man of his ability would have less difficulty in finding an opening than a lady stenographer would have. Alderman Montgomery said that the report was all right so far as it went—but it did not go far enough. He felt pleased that in one week the Finance Committee had been able to accomplish so much, and suggested that if they gave the matter another week's consideration, they might be able to bring about a total saving of $14,000 instead of the $7,860 proposed. (Cheers.)

Alderman Maitland said that he approved of the reductions, but that they would hear from him again very soon on the same subject. (Cheers.) The Mayor resented Alderman Montgomery's insinuation that the Finance Committee had only made the move as a counter to his proposal, and that the Finance Committee would have done nothing had the first proposition not been brought in. He reiterated that he had tried for months to get the Council together on some such plan of retrenchment and had failed to get unity in the matter, and that Alderman Montgomery was chiefly responsible for this lack of cohesion.

Alderman Montgomery retorted that the Mayor should give a lead in such matters, and not wait on someone else doing something. Each alderman present expressed a desire for retrenchment, and, after a discussion which lasted until midnight, each clause of the Finance Committee's report was adopted, making a saving to the city of $7,860 a year.

At the close of the meeting the city engineer tendered his resignation.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, June 29.—The following is a review of the situation today: The Russian centre is reforming before Von Lingingen's drive across the Dneister. BASEBALL GAME LAST NIGHT NETTED $160 FOR HOSPITAL

WONDERFUL FORM DISPLAYED BY THE "BOYS"—STARS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT OF THE GAME — MILES OF BASE RUNNING AND BALL CHASING MERCHANTS WIN EASILY.

The baseball game between the Merchants and the Professionals last night was a huge success from every point of view. Everybody and his wife was there, and there wasn't a sad moment, for the spectators, from start to finish. At first some of the players seemed inclined to take the game seriously, but as the sense of the importance of the occasion wore off they warmed to their work, and never thought of consequences.

The game revealed a number of "has beens," and a lot of "might have beens." The form displayed by some of the players was remarkable. Judge Carss was the youngest and heftiest wielder of the bat, and, judging by what he can do yet, he must have been a terror some forty-odd years ago. Frank Mobley had a home run, while Joe Scott and George Sweet scored three-base hits. Geo. Frizzell did wonders at first base, and George Tite and Fred Stork were the star pitchers. W. E. Williams pitched well on the start, but later on was inclined to do too much in the way of curve and elevation.

The feature of the evening, however, was the baserunning. There hasn't been so much base running in one game for a long time. Fred Stork and "Doc" McCutcheon trotted around like two-year-olds, though it is reported that they feel considerably older this morning. The speed of Alex Manson and L. W. Patmore was wonderful, and suggested weeks of quiet training.

The outfield work of both sides was a splendid example of combined work, feet and hands working together in perfect harmony when the ball showed signs of becoming obstreperous, though sometimes the ball won in the tussle.

Wm. Manson made a great umpire. He was absolutely imperturbable.

SHAMES RANCHER DIES AT HOSPITAL

Louis F. Banville, aged 63, died at the hospital last night of bronchial pneumonia. Deceased was a native of Quebec, and was well known in this district, having worked for Foley, Welch & Stewart and the G. T. P. in the early days. Lately, Mr. Banville had been ranching at Shames.

able and even when threatened with a bat refused to divulge any information. The Mayor for a time acted as judge on bases, but was called away to play first base at the City Hall, being succeeded by Olier Besner, whose decisions went unopposed (Olier weighing 230 and proportionately husky).

There is a difference of opinion about the score, but it seems fairly certain that the Merchants won by at least ten runs, though some say twenty. The hospital directors say the score was $160, and that it was the finest game of ball played anywhere by anybody. In any case, the audience was satisfied; the players were more than satisfied, and the hospital board was delighted—so the ladies had better arrange another game soon.

INSURANCE COMPANIES FIGHTING ARNOLD CLAIMS

(Special to The Daily News.)

Vancouver, June 29.—The Mutual Life Insurance Company has secured an order for the clothes of the late W. R. Arnold, which were impounded by the Supreme Court. Other insurance companies are also refusing payment.
