VOL. XI. NO. 155. PRINCE RUPERT, B. C., MONDAY, JULY 5, 1920. PRICE FIVE CENTS

Cox and McAdoo Take Lead in Turn NEW ORDER HAS ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY MEMBERS IN PRINCE RUPERT

Frisco Nominations Now Deadlocked

McAdoo was leading on the Thirtieth Ballot with occasional booms for Cox; Hisses when Hearst was proposed

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—When Massachusetts cast one vote for Hearst at the nominations Saturday morning the act was greeted with hisses.

On the ninth ballot McAdoo had 385 votes, Cox 321 and Palmer 257.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—The convention adjourned at midnight Saturday to resume today. The twentieth ballot at that time was a deadlock with Governor Cox of Ohio considerably in the lead and McAdoo running second. The standing then was Cox, 456; McAdoo, 340; Palmer, 178; Owen, 41; Davis, 36; Glass, 26; Cummins, 16; Clarke, 2, and Gerard, 1. Pandemonium reigns while frantic efforts are being made to swing votes. The successful nominee requires 731 votes.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—(Later).—On the twenty-sixth ballot the three candidates stood as follows: McAdoo, 471; Cox, 424; Palmer, 167.

The situation is practically unchanged today from Saturday night. It is stated that the Palmer forces hold the key to open the door to victory.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—(Flash).—Indiana slides 29 to McAdoo on thirtieth ballot, who now passes Cox. McAdoo has 463 and Cox has 400 while Palmer comes third with 165.

EXCURSIONIST TO KETCHIKAN PASSED AWAY

Coroner's Jury Finds William McNabb Died from Overdose of Narcotics

Ketchikan, July 5.—William McNabb, one of the excursionists from Prince Rupert on the Lazy Mine arriving here Saturday morning, was taken off the vessel immediately on her arrival here and passed away shortly after at the Ketchikan Hospital. He was taken severely ill on the boat before making this port.

The verdict of a coroner's inquest held yesterday before the departure of the boat for Prince Rupert found death due to an overdose of narcotic.

McNabb was a very young man in the early twenties and had lived in Prince Rupert for some time. On his first arrival from Edmonton, his home, he was employed at the New Windsor cabaret as pianist. Later he drove a taxi and before his death was pianist at the Hub cabaret. His family, who reside in Edmonton, are being communicated with.

CANNERY HANDS ON SKEENA TO ORGANIZE

Met on Saturday But Adjourned Until Later Date.

On Saturday evening an organization meeting was held in Port Essington amongst the fishermen and cannery hands. Although no definite plans were formulated it was decided that it would be wise to meet again soon and the date was set for July 17. Whites, Japanese, Chinamen and Indians all gathered for the meeting. One of the first matters which will receive consideration will be that of the conditions for the seepers in the various plants.

Knights of Columbus Have Enthusiastic Initiations

Prince Rupert Council is established with Martin O'Reilly as Grand Knight— Great Banquet last night

On very few occasions in the history of Prince Rupert has a banquet board been attended with such enthusiasm as that which prevailed at the affair celebrating the establishment of the Prince Rupert Council, Knights of Columbus, held in the St. Andrew's Hall last night. The crowd sitting down to the delightful and bounteous repast must have numbered nearly 300 and included the visiting knights from the south and the "baby" knights of the Prince Rupert Council.

The earlier part of the day had been given over to the performance of initiations and the conferring of degrees and other matters connected with the establishment of a new chapter. In charge of the degree conferring team was J. D. O'Donnell, the state deputy for the province.

Mr. O'Donnell also had the general opening up of the branch in hand and nothing but praise was heard for the manner in which he conducted the important duties.

List of Officers.

The first officer list for the Prince Rupert Council, the newest one in British Columbia, is as follows: Grand Knight, Martin O'Reilly; Deputy Grand Knight, Fred Henning; Chancellor, E. A. Donohue; Treasurer, A. D. Gillis; Recording Secretary, J. J. Muldoon; Financial Secretary, F. W. Moersch; Lecturer, J. D. McAuley; Advocate, M. P. McCaffery; Trustees, J. S. Roberts, Thomas Trotter and M. J. McNeill; Warden, Mike Burke; Inside Guard, J. J. Gillis; Outside Guard, Jack Keefe; Chaplain, Father McGrath. At the head of the banquet table last night was E. A. Donohue, B.A., LL.B., the newly elected chancellor, and an old member of the order. The spread was dainty and sumptuous and was served in excellent style by the ladies of the Catholic Church, whose ministrations in preparing the repast and attending to the serving was a feature in its success and enjoyment. From first to last it was a thorough delight. During the banquet, Gray's Orchestra played splendid instrumental numbers. Mrs. F. W. Moersch headed the banquet committee and was largely responsible for its success.
