

FAR FROM THE CITY'S WITHERING HEAT —and Eagle Brand awaits you

A chip of the old block, this brown little scamp—vigorous and lusty, brimming with life. Eagle Brand gave him a good start, just as it gave his father a good start 30 years ago. Many poor little babies do not go away through the hot spells. Mothers fear strange milk in a strange place may carry hot weather troubles. Feed your baby Eagle Brand and be safe. Seashore or country or stay-in-the-city, Eagle Brand is always uniform.

If nature's own food is insufficient, use Eagle Brand—pure, wholesome and easily digested. It is prepared from rich cow's milk and has been the standard infant food for 63 years.

Economical too. At all groceries and drug stores.

Sport Briefs

This afternoon at the Acropolis Hill grounds the Chaffeurs and Butchers clash in a tussle for honors in the commercial baseball league. A very good brand of ball has been put up by the speed demons and the meat slashers. The batteries for today will be Astoria, pitcher, and Bobby Frizell, catcher, for the Butchers and Ralph Smith hurling for the Chaffeurs with Haudenschild receiving.

The Colts' supporters were out in full force last evening at the baseball game. For a long time the fair maidens provided much amusement for the spectators as well as encouragement for the players with their vociferous yelling. However, towards the end of the game there was a decided quiet among the ranks as a feeling of dread seemed to spread as the Red Sox came up and walloped the balls out of reach of the fielders.

The Colts put three pitchers in the box last evening but that did not stop the tide of events. In succession they were Ralph Smith, Eddie Baby and Len Sherman.

At the football game on Monday evening Eddie Smith for the G. T. P. team showed up to good advantage at outside left and was swinging a dangerous foot towards the Callie goal. On one occasion the leather hit the cross bar on the lower side and bounced out instead of in.

Powers, the catcher for the Red Sox, showed up well last evening and besides catching a good game made all his hits count. It was his first appearance on the local diamond and his work added to the credit to the winners yesterday evening. He never let a pass ball go if there were any men on bases and knocked a three-bagger, bringing three men home.

Fans at the football game on Monday evening were pleased to see measure that Lawson's shot at goal on the penalty went wild. It might have been the deciding count with the two teams playing the steady gait they were. As it was the play continued and the better team of the evening won on a goal shot from play.

Three members of Alice Arm's star baseball team who recently arrived from Vancouver to spend the season playing in the Northern League returned south on the Chelohsin last night. Their catcher, Downey, is returning to Edmonton, while Stickney, pitcher, and Fox, third baseman, are in Prince Rupert. It appears that the all-star aggregation is to break up after a stay in the north during which time they lost two games and won two. Stewart's baseballers, who have been in the north nearly two months, are taking everything in the Northern League.

Following the baseball game last evening all the players of the Red Sox team were treated by Fred Gilhuly to a supper. The boys were all in the best of good humor and while waiting for the club sandwiches gave a series of songs and dance selections. Some sang and others danced up and down the floor between the tables. On the way down from the grounds one car was filled by "Slat's" Weber's crowd of players.
