HOWARD KELLEY President of G.T.P. and Chairman Co-ordination Boards

Howard Kelley, who has been President of the Grand Trunk System since 1917, has in addition to splendid scientific and practical training the qualities of mind that make for the successful handling of big tasks.

the wilderness. As a young engineer fresh from the university he took part, from 1881, to 1884, in the location and construction of western railways, slept in the open and knew the hardships of the pioneer railway builder's life.

the Presidency of the Grand Trunk has been considered one of the most arduous positions in the railway world. His jurisdiction extended over lines which stretched from the Atlantic to the Pacific in Canada, dipped down through five states in the Middle West and traversed practically the whole of New England.

ORANGE PICNIC WAS ONE HUGE SUCCESS

Orangemen Lost Football Match to Port Simpson by 1-0 Score; Races of Ladies and Children.

The Orangemen's picnic to Port Simpson yesterday was a great success and an event thoroughly enjoyed by the 100 or more who joined the excursion.

The picnicers had their lunches in various beauty spots around the old village and the weather was most auspicious.
