Train Men for Municipal Government.

One of the reasons given for the appointment of Sir Arthur Currie to the principalship of McGill University is that he will be able to reorganize this great institution to better serve the needs of the day. If such is the case there never was a better opportunity for Sir Arthur to serve the present generation than to work for the establishment of a municipal department through which young men can be specially trained for the government of our cities. In the United States many of the universities and the state institutions in particular have such departments given wholly or in part to the study of municipal government, in which they have been remarkably successful. In Canada, on the other hand, education in local government has never been taken up seriously with the result that many of the principal executive positions have to be filled by outsiders, because on account of the growth of our cities such executive positions can only be satisfactorily filled by men with special knowledge. Moreover, there is a fast-growing tendency throughout the Dominion towards the commission and manager form of municipal government, which means that more trained men will soon be required for administration of Canada's municipalities. Should the whole of Canada's 891 urban communities adopt the new form of government it would fail, because there would be insufficient qualified men. The Canadian Municipal Journal seems to have a good deal of well based reasons for the encouragement of a new department in the educational institutions of our country.

Soapy Smith Rule on Law and Order.

Citizens of Smithers who were enjoying the calm and cool of Sunday evening were forced to witness exhibitions of drunkenness and profanity that would have done credit to the best efforts of the bar-room's balmiest days. Ladies on the way home from church were in several cases forced to walk on the road to evade the reeling, bleary-eyed rats who again were victims of the greed that has taken possession of would-be reputable citizens, who vie with each other in their efforts and boasts of establishing the rule of Soapy Smith. When men can peddle rotten liquor and boast of the slowness of Canadian officials it is about time that Canadians stepped in and demonstrated that there is a difference between forbearance and fear, and that they must not confuse our tolerance of their methods to a degree with slowness. Decent people have a right to the free use of our sidewalks without being subject to the indignity of the leers of a gang of slobbering bohunks ginned up by a lot of yellow skunks behind skirts and other frailties and calling themselves "slick."—Interior News.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

NORTH DAKOTA BEAT HAGWILGET IN BASE BALL GAME MONDAY

On July 12 in the famous Bulkley Valley, there took place on the ball park in Hagwilget Canyon a baseball match of unusual interest between a team representing North Dakota called the Waughollers and a team of Hagwilget Indianboys, the Indians badly outclassing the North Dakotans, the final score being 14 to 1 in favor of the red men.

The following are the names of those participating in the fracas:—
Hagwilget Indians—Kitsequela Tim C., Moocasin Joe P., Metlakalla Charlie 1b., Charlie Fatfish 2b., Aleck Joe ss., Prince Albert 3b., Haida Pete cf., Kitselas Dave lf., Kitwanoof Henry rf.
Waughollers—F. Gibson c., Wolfe and Taylor p., Tetrault 1b., Hall 2b., Bryant ss., Bailey 3b., Brisbane cf., C. Gibson lf., Elliott rf.

A great deal of dissatisfaction was expressed by both sides at the various decisions rendered by the umpires, several of which had to be substituted. The first unsatisfactory umpire was Meamskinist Westcott, chief of the Hairy Indian tribe. His decisions were so raw in favor of his redskin brethren that, to avert a riot, they took him out and substituted another cohort, Leatherneck Bill. Leatherneck did well for one inning, when his Indian friends came to the conclusion that he had been "fixed" by the palefaces and demanded his scalp, as well as that of "One More River to Cross" Gringan, whom they accused of doing the "fixing." Finally peace was restored by substituting Square-deal Blasky, a paleface umpire of note, who gave general satisfaction for the other inning that was played.

At the conclusion of the game another dispute arose between the captain of the Indian team and the official scorekeeper, Kitsumgallum Munro—the latter being accused of "jipping" the score and holding out on the Indians. The affair was finally settled to the satisfaction of all parties by a board of arbitration consisting of Kitimat Dawson, Kitkatla Riddell, Skidegate Dobbs and the Big White Chief Smaglooalum Lett.

After three rousing cheers the party dispersed.

HON. T. D. PATTULLO ARRIVES

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands and member in the provincial legislature for Prince Rupert, arrived from the south this forenoon and left again at noon by the Prince Rupert for a visit to his constituents on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:

THAT humor is not always spontaneous even in the funniest of persons, or the craziest.

THAT present day humor consists mainly of the ridiculous.

THAT the more ridiculous you are the better people like it.

THAT certain people capitalize their foolishness and become millionaires, but they never become sensible.

THAT some people describe cases like these as being "fools for luck."

THAT the humorist who really earns his living is the one who gets funny at 4 o'clock every afternoon, no matter what he may be thinking about or how he really feels.

THAT the Acropolis Hill Sports Ground is working harder this year than ever it did before.

THAT it shows good for Prince Rupert.

THAT enough clean sport is a thing that has been lacking here for many years and it cannot be too much appreciated.

THAT athletes, the ones who can best afford to be, are very seldom loafers.

THAT the Prince Rupert Senior baseball team has no excuse not to practice now after the City Council has granted them two nights a week on the Sports Ground.

THAT they may win another game yet this season.
