NEW RULE OF ROAD TODAY

Drivers and Chauffeurs are Getting Accustomed to Passing Used In Other Parts of the Country.

Today, July 15, is the day that the "Rule of the Road" changes in all parts of British Columbia included in District No. 2 which takes in all the province outside of the immediate vicinity of the southern cities of Vancouver, New Westminster and Victoria. This district, of course, includes Prince Rupert, and the new rule is "Keep to the Right." The law is merely the stepping in line of this province with the rest of the country which already uses the right hand passing.

Bright and early this morning the chauffeurs and drivers were required to observe the new ruling and one could hear the watchful ones calling the attention of certain others who were forgetful that the new law had come into effect and they were on the wrong side of the street. The change will, of course, be a little inconvenient for a few days but drivers will soon become accustomed to it especially as they have driven in other provinces and states already accustomed to the right hand passing.

NEW LOCOMOTIVE FOR ALICE ARM IS ON WAY

An illustration in the financial section of the Vancouver Sun of last Sunday has the following footnote: "This is one of the biggest jobs the C. P. R. 50-ton crane to the east of Upper D. has ever been called upon to do. The locomotive weighs twenty tons and was shipped north from Vancouver last week to Alice Arm, where it and another like it will haul trains on the famous Dolly Varden Railroad."

PRESBYTERIANS HAD PLEASANT PICNIC One Hundred and Fifty Crossed to Digby for Annual Event—Everybody Happy. At the Presbyterian Sunday School picnic held to Digby Island yesterday afternoon everyone had a good time. Early in the afternoon the launches left with capacity loads of smiling children and happy grown-ups. J. Myhill-Jones' boat "Oh Baby," Chas. E. Starr's launch, H. S. Wallace's "Ethelda," George W. Bryant's "Harla," and A. McLean's "Lois M." conveyed the first picnickers to the grounds. At 5:30 a number of the business men came over and the whole party numbered well over the 150 mark. The chief attraction during the afternoon were the children's sports. Every entry was a winner. There were no blanks, so that all the little tots went away encouraged and satisfied with whatever effort they had put forth. The races were held on the long pier which leads out from the Quarantine Hospital. There were events for the men and women also and these also had many entries. A special feature was the orange race which used to be known as the potato race, but owing to the value of spuds a substitute had to be found. Later a huge fire was built and tea and coffee were shared around amongst the various groups squatted on the hot sands. The day was a most auspicious one for a pleasant time on the beach and some of the larger boys and girls were in bathing for a considerable part of the afternoon. Before boarding the homeward-bound launches, Mr. Fuller who had greatly assisted in making the affair successful passed the hat around and a substantial collection was raised. The money was given to the safe keeping of a treasurer who bought tickets on the merry-go-round. As the youngsters gaily sailed round on the hobby horses at Market Place they were surely satisfied with their lot in life.
