OLD TIMER LEAVING

Richard M. Higgs Has Sold Out
McBride Street Business to Alex Yule.

R. M. Higgs is selling his cigar store on McBride Street to Alex Yule this week and on Monday intends to leave for his old "stamping grounds" in the Athabasca country. Mr. Higgs has been in Prince Rupert for over twelve years, having arrived from Vancouver in a rowboat with Billy Lewis in June, 1908. Since that time he had engaged in railway and logging work until a few years ago he took over the business on McBride Street.

Although many will miss Mr. Higgs, his place will be well filled by Mr. Yule, who is also an old timer and well known. Mr. Yule takes possession on Monday morning.

POLICE COURT

Shidnek Fined $100; Urlacher
Further Remanded

In the Police Court this morning N. Stidnek was fined $100 of three months in jail for carrying a revolver without a permit. It was a five-chambered weapon and at the time of the arrest was fully loaded. The incident of the arrest happened about a week ago in the Hub Cabaret. At first Stidnek was charged with pointing a gun, but this was revised to the charge under which he was penalized this morning. He will pay the one hundred dollars.

The case of J. Urlacher charged with assault has been further adjourned to July 26.

BEAVERS BEAT THE RED SOX

Shown They Could Play Ball in Staging Come-Back Last Evening.

The Beavers easily displayed their baseball ability last evening by a victory of 11 runs to 11 over the Red Sox. Both teams played hard and in spite of the lead gained by the Beavers the Red Sox pulled up well and it looked for a time that the score might be evened. This was impossible, however, with the good ball that the Beavers were playing. They got right in the way of the leather and made few errors. The Red Sox were hitting alright but always seemed to let up on the batting when the men got on bases and generally their side went out with three on. They lacked pep in their fielding too and the men in the out field were slow to get under the flies.

The batting for the Beavers was helped by the fine stick handling of Curtis and Joe Hatchford. The former as catcher did good work last evening and allowed no easy stolen bases. Sid Jones for the Red Sox was walloping the pill at a great rate and collected a two bagger which he stretched to a three by a bad throw in. Jimmy Mitchell was not put out once during last evening's game although it was no fault of Joe Hatchford when he attempted to catch a low fly over second. The batter seemed to have all the luck.

Donohue was umpire behind the plate and Stickney engineered the plays around the diamond. Both teams appreciated their unselfish efforts in the delicate job of supervising the various plays. The teams were as follows: Beavers—Curtis, Crossley, Elmer Smith, Higgins, Hatchford, Budenich, Halverson, McDonald and Sweet.

Red Sox—Davidson, Rochon, Jones, Astoria, Charlton, Butters, Mitchell, Sherman and Graham.

GLASS BATH NEWEST IN "LUXURY" HOUSE

Famous French Gown Designer
Offers His Latest Decorative Innovation

LONDON, July 22.—The fudge item in house fixtures is the glass bath.

It has been introduced here by Paul Poiret, the dress designer, who is going in also for household decoration in order that his gowns might have worthy settings.

Despite many other attempts at the aesthetic bathtub, none have come up to Poiret's for beauty as well as utility.

Gaby Deslys, it may be remembered, prided herself on her black marble bathroom. But many folks seeking domestic luxury in their ablations, have pounced on the idea of a marble bath-tub, only to return a verdict that it was "cold and uncomfortable." Some plutocrats have even gone so far as to use a gold or silver bath; but these have been pronounced "bad form," and certainly they haven't been done very extensively by the best people.

Poiret would seem to have solved a problem which has baffled many, for his bath is of translucent green and the walls of its shrine decorated with fishes; a shell acts as a light diffuser and there is a seafoam frieze.

This glass bath is to be the finishing touch to what is described as the "most colorful house in London."

Poiret's decorating business is known as "Martine." He has furnished a typical London house in a typical London manner, and decorative artists who are "afraid of color" are invited to go there and get over the first shocks.

GOD GAVE HERBS TO RELIEVE SUFFERING

No person should despise the lowly herb for it is the Creator's gift to the world for the relief of suffering. The roots, stalks, leaves and blossoms possess medicinal properties for the relief of disease such as are found in no other work of Creation.

Every reader is familiar with the use of herbs in the early days of British Columbia. Every home was stocked with simple herbs and their use in case of sickness saved the day many a time. The most striking instance of the value of herbs remedies is given in the case of Wonder Health Restorer. This preparation, while sold in all drug stores, differs widely from ordinary remedies. It is a true Nature remedy in that it contains not a trace of alcohol or drugs. It depends solely for its work upon the action of the herb juices of which it is composed for the treatment of the blood and diseases existing in the various organs. It represents the life-work of one of the world's greatest herbalists and is a treatment no sufferer from disease can overlook. All over the world the name of Wonder Health Restorer is known. Thousands state that it has given them relief in cases of Asthma, Rheumatism, Stomach trouble, Nervous complaints, Kidney disease, Skin troubles, Piles, etc. In many of these cases the ailment was present in very acute form and the sufferer tried Wonder Health Restorer after all other forms of treatment had failed. No person can question or doubt the honesty of the persons whose testimonials are recorded in "The Road to Health," a booklet which can be obtained from your local druggist. Get a copy and read it through. If God has blessed you with good health, pass it on to a friend who may be suffering. Arrangements have been made for the distribution of Wonder Health Restorer in Prince Rupert by the Prince Rupert Drug Co.

Call and get a copy of the booklet and enquire concerning this unequalled preparation, which has made a new record in the successful treatment of human disease.
