COLTS GATHERED IN THE RED SOX

TO SPEND HOLIDAY IN PRINCE RUPERT

A1 Ball at Athletic Grounds When Colts Again Topped League.

The Colts walked away with last evening's baseball game against the Red Sox by the score of 11 to 5. The score is by no means indicative of the play, as it was fast baseball throughout except in the sixth inning when the Red Sox went up in the air and allowed six runs to come in.

To the very end the fighting was hard and the last bats by the Red Sox held everyone in their places in the grand stand because no one could tell just what would happen.

Up to the sixth the Red Sox were leading by the score of 4 to 2 and it looked as if they might put the game on ice. The Colts were saying little on the bench but were apparently waiting with quiet confidence for the time when they could start to pick up runs. It was here that Tullock made an error for the Red Sox and tried to play for the man going home when there were two down and an easy put out on first. The Colts had 10 men up in this inning.

Following the break the pacesetters again strove to get the lead but Butler and his fielders were all playing A1 ball and they did not fall down on the job at the critical moment. Even with their lead the Colts did not relax and tallied three more to one gained by their rivals.

Donohue was umpire behind the plate with Fred Henning on the bases.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:

Colts — Hill, Butler, Roberts, Raby, Mitchell, Sherman, E. Clapp, E. Smith and G. Shaw. Ralph Smith, substitute.

Red Sox — Frizzell, Tullock, Bazett-Jones, Astoria, Charle-ton, Mitchell, Butters, Rossiter and Graham.

"LOVE AND THE WOMAN"

Good Picture Shown at Empress Starring June Elvidge

"Love and the Woman," the new World Picture starring June Elvidge, was shown last night at the Empress. It is a corking good production, showing Miss Elvidge in two roles of strikingly different nature, and telling a story that keeps all the spectators guessing to the very end as to what the outcome is going to be.
Be sure to see this picture.

Indian who Threatened Father Allard may be Tried Here

Father Allard senior has gone up to Fort St. James, where he will spend a few weeks relieving his brother at the Indian mission, who is about to take vacation in Prince Rupert, says the Nechako Chronicle. The Indian mission school has been closed for the summer holidays.

While Dr. Atlin some time ago Father Allard was met at the wharf by an Indian whom he had sent from the community on account of bad conduct ten years ago.
The Indian, seeking revenge, followed the priest up to the native village with a 44 gun and told Father Allard that he had come for him, and exhibited the weapon mentioned and also a dagger; so the priest ran into a house. Then the Indian went to a window and while pointing the gun at the priest was attacked by other Indians who prevented the shooting taking place and the "bad" man was afterward arrested.
The case will likely come up at the fall assizes held in Prince Rupert.

Father Allard has already given the authorities a statement of the incident.

FINE MELODRAMAS AT THE WESTHOLME

"Should a Husband Forgive?" is Powerful Play Full of Action

"Should a Husband Forgive?" the much-heralded Fox special which opened at the Westholme Theatre yesterday, is one of the best melodramas seen here in a long time. The story holds one's interest every moment and the tension of the situations gives thrill after thrill.

R. A. Walsh, a master of big spectacular productions, in this picture has applied to the utmost his exceptional ability. He has taken a real human interest story and woven it into a wonderful play. It deals with a young girl who has been brought up amid racing people and horses, and who, left alone in the world is beset by evil men. She falls in love with a Southern boy, who eventually forsakes her when gossip tells him she has past. Despite this, she saves him from financial ruin by riding his horse to victory, after learning of a plot which would have made him a puper. The film is to be repeated tonight.
