JUST TRY THIS

As an experiment, try your table with that silverware you seldom if ever use—that cake basket, bread tray, cream jug and sugar basin, butter dish, etc. Now note the pleasing change from the ordinary setting.

When you remember that using them does not harm these things in the least—that they were made to be used for a lifetime—you will want to use them regularly, as a great many other people are now doing. Is there any good reason why you shouldn't "use your silverware?"

WHITE FISH SUPPLY IS BEING CUT DOWN

Government of Ontario Sells Catch in Own Province Only

Having exceeded the Ontario demand for whitefish, the Department of Fisheries of the Ontario Government has been obliged to cut down production by the fishermen in Lakes Nipissing and Nipigon. Half a ton a day has been knocked off the catch for the present and until the demand improves and the catch of outside and private fishing firms decreases.

The department easily disposes of the surplus to the United States, but such action is contrary to the policy which is to supply Ontario people with fresh fish at uniform and low prices. The catch of whitefish has been very good. The department has been getting and selling about 2½ tons of whitefish and trout every two days. Now it has taken half a ton of whitefish off, but no limit has been placed on trout, for which there is a keen demand. The Government fishing men in Lakes Nipissing and Nipigon have had a good season. A change of policy this year does not allow the department to buy from outside fisheries.

While supplying Ontario with good and cheap fish, the department must also attain another object and that is to preserve the fish. That is one of the reasons why only the Ontario demand is met and no attempt made to get into the outside market. The scarcity of trout in the two lakes fished by the Government hampers the sale somewhat. There are no trout in Lake Nipissing and only about one-quarter of the fish caught in Nipigon are trout. The fishermen are now reducing the number of whitefish nets to keep within the limits set by the department.

JEWS' POSITION IN PALESTINE

Mon. A. J. Balfour and Lord Robert Cecil Address Zionist Federation.

At a demonstration held at the Albert Hall, London, under the auspices of the English Zionist Federation, to celebrate the acceptance by Great Britain of the mandate for Palestine, Mr. Balfour said that for long he had been a convinced Zionist, but in his most sanguine moments he never conceived the possibility that the great work of Palestinian reconstruction would happen so soon. This was one of the great and unexpected results of the war. There were difficulties ahead, among them the Arab question. It would require tact, judgment, and above all sympathetic goodwill on the part of both Jew and Arab.

He hoped they would remember that while we desired under the aegis of Great Britain to establish this home for the Jewish people many of the Great Powers, especially Great Britain, had freed the Arab race from the tyranny of their brutal conqueror who had kept them under his heel for many centuries. He hoped they would not begrudge that small notch in the Arab territory being given to the people who for hundreds of years had been separated from it, but who surely had a title to develop on their own lines in the land of their forefathers.

Great Adventure

"We are embarked on a great adventure," concluded Mr. Balfour, "and I say 'we' advisedly, and by 'we' I mean on the one side the Jewish people and on the other the mandatory Power of Palestine. We are partners in this great enterprise. If we fail you cannot succeed, if you fail you cannot succeed, but I feel assured that we shall not fail you, and that you will not fail us, and if I am right, as I am sure I am, in this prophecy of hope and confidence, then surely we may look forward with a happy gaze to a future in which Palestine will indeed, in the fullest measure and degree of success, be made a home for the Jewish people." (Loud applause.)

Dr. Charles Weizmann said that the Jews reestablished in Palestine would be a contribution to the civilization of the world.

Outstanding Features

Lord Robert Cecil said that when the history of the war came to be written he believed that the two outstanding features of it would be the establishment of the national Jewish home and the creation of the League of Nations, and the two were not really disconnected. They represented two great ideals for which we fought and by which we conquered. The Jews had in their hands the success or the failure of one of the greatest experiments that had ever been tried. "We have given you national existence," he said. "In your hands lies your national future." (Applause.)
