It Brings Out The Flavor

In a very nice letter Mrs. Bevil says we never mention how nice fresh fruit is with Pacific Milk instead of cream. She discovered it on a picnic, when they found blueberries all around them. It was the first time she ever "Really enjoyed blueberries, and it was your milk that brought out their delicate flavor. I have since tried it on other fruits with the same results."

League Standing.

	P.	W.	L.	Pct.
Colts	10	7	3	700
Red Sox	10	6	4	600
Sawmill	9	4	5	444
Beavers	9	2	7	222

There is still one postponed game to be played between the Sawmill and the Beavers and then all the teams will have played ten matches. If the Sawmill win this postponed match they will elevate their standing to 500 and will reduce the Beavers to 200. With three teams running so close the final issue will be truly thrilling. Then again if the Beavers play the same style of game in the future that they did on Friday night it is very probable that each of the three leading teams can squash them easily. This brings a still further close play for it dwindles down to the final decisive outcome when the Colts, Red Sox or Sawmill play one against the other.

A Canadian golfer, A. R. Turner, walked almost forty miles and made 925 strokes on a course in Saskatchewan recently. He was out on the links enjoying his game for nearly seventeen and a half hours.

Captain F. R. Martin of Calgary, the Canadian Bisley rifleman, has returned to Montreal where he will compete in the Province of Quebec Rifle Association meeting. Captain Martin was the winner of the Commissioner's cup awarded to the highest aggregate among Canadians attending Bisley.

Fourteen teams will be included in the Vancouver and district football league so that the coming season promises to be one of the most successful in recent years.

The following players will represent the Grand Trunk football team tonight in the match against the Trail Club on the Acropolis Hill grounds: Dunn, Ed Ross, H. Farnthorpe, J. Jackson, A. Craggs, P. O'Donnell, Farnthorpe, Westwood, W. Sloane, E. Harding and E. Smith. Reserves: Hamilton, Burt and Campbell.

NAZIMOVA IN CLASSIC DANCES

"Stronger Than Death" is Dramatic Story of Life in India.

Playing the fascinating role of a London music hall dancer who finds romance in the heart of India, the superb Nazimova is coming to the Westhque Theatre tonight. The Russian star's newest screen vehicle is entitled "Stronger Than Death," and advance accounts of the production describe it as the most ambitious yet done by Nazimova. "Stronger Than Death" is a screen adaptation of the brilliant novel by I. A. R. Wylie. It is a story of a beautiful and poetic love, which develops between a man and a woman placed by fate into an atmosphere of danger and swiftly moving events. Stirring drama at all times illumines the narrative, making it one of those stories that gets a strong hold upon the emotions of the spectator.

Briefly, it concerns one Sigrid Fersen, favorite of Paris and London theatres, who arrives in an English army barracks town deep in the jungles of India. She meets a hostile reception from the small and gossipy community of British, but her personality wins them after her first test.

Falls in Love.

She falls in love with a physician, known as the hermit doctor, who is devoting his life to treating the native Hindus during an epidemic of cholera. Because of the harshness of the British commander of the post, and a wrong he had committed against "the bride of Vishnu," a sacred dancer of the temple, the native troops, incited by the high priest of the temple, plan a revolt.

On the night the uprising is to take place, with a massacre of the whites as its object, Sigrid goes to the temple steps to dance in the moonlight, as her lover had often dreamed of her doing. Her lithe figure, in flowing white, fills the natives with awe, and believing her to be the reincarnation of the defiled "bride of Vishnu," they fall down to worship her. She dances until she is exhausted, in order to hold the blacks from their contemplated revolt, and by so doing enables British reinforcements to get up and save the situation.

Classic Dances.

Nazimova's dancing is of the classic sort. She wears the white, flowing garments of the Greek dancers. This style of terpsichore is much affected among the girls and young women of the present day. Parents send their children to schools to learn the poetry of motion.

AUNT DOLLY WAS A SOUTHERN SLAVE

Was Well Known at Dawson and in Alaska.

Everyone who knows Tenakee, the hot springs town, knows "Aunt Dolly," says an Alaska exchange. They know her humor and her philosophy and have listened to her tales of frontier days by the hour. "Aunt Dolly" is dead. One of the characters of Alaska has passed on.

Mrs. Dolly Nelson "Aunt Dolly," born a slave in Maryland something over 85 years ago, died at Tenakee after a very brief illness. She was buried the next day, Commissioner Case conducting the services and the whole population of Tenakee followed her body to its last resting place under the big spruce trees at the end of Tenakee's one and only street.

"Aunt Dolly," after securing her freedom through Abraham Lincoln, her idol, came west and took part in all the stirring times incidental to the winning of the west. She was a skilled cook of those luscious Southern dishes that have made the South famous to the world over. A true daughter of the frontier, she came North with the Klondike rush and went to Dawson and other camps of the interior. She operated road-houses where her cooking and her humor cheered many a weary trapper.

Don M. MacArthur of North Pacific Cannery came into town on the train last evening. Don is a student at the University of B. C. who is spending his summer holidays in the north.
